

Heraion Treasure	1403BbII6	1412a36	1417AII21	1426BII22	1442B44	1443BIII12
			155BC		146BC	141BC
a. in the Heraion	x ¹		x	x	x	x
1 two statues half clothed in linen ²			x	x ³	x	x-
2 two stone tables	x	x	x	x	x ⁴	x
3 bronze censer	x	x	x	x	x ⁵	x
4 two stone statues		x	x	x	x ⁶
5 door w. bronze nails, one missing	x	x	x	x	x ⁷
6 one forged (bolt)	x		x	x	x	x
7 three small disks		x	x	x	x	x
b. In the prodomos	x		x	x	x
8 two wooden railings	x		x	x	x ⁸
9 ten dedicatory pinaxes	x		x	x	x	x-
10 and the (statue) of Hera in the harbor which Glaukiades and Xenophilos repaired				x
11 hair-fastener in small chest ⁹					x

¹. "From the He[raion]"! Support for Tréheux's interpretation (see above p. 188).

². Probably Zeus and Hera (CDH 252); the statues receive petala in ID 163A47.

³. "Acrolithic"; so ID 1442.

⁴. "One has hypotypsis (?)"; so ID 1443.

⁵. "Bronzed wood"; so ID 1443.

⁶. "Figures (zôidaria)."

⁷. Nothing about the missing nail.

⁸. This comes before the "prodomos" label.

⁹. Bruneau (CDH 253) says this is more likely to be a type of light clothing than a hair fastener.