

Chinese Program (Bryn Mawr-Haverford Colleges)

Placement Test

Part I

Essay

Pledge: I accept full responsibility under the Haverford Honor Code for my conduct on this exam.

English Name: (print)-----

姓名: -----

签字(signature): (In English)-----

日期: -----started at:_____finished at:_____

Instructions:

1. Part I: Write an essay on any topic in either simplified or traditional form.
2. Up to 240 characters (two sheets) within three hours.
3. For those whose Chinese writing is not so advanced, please write as much as you can within the limit.
4. No dictionary or any other form of assistance is allowed.
5. Please complete your essay in one sitting, namely, once you start, you should not stop until you finish.
6. Please use the two sheets provided below. When done, please scan your essay including this page and email the scanned copy to Mr. Changchun Zhang (czhang@brynmawr.edu), the faculty member in charge of the Placement Test, no later than August 10, 2011.

The subject line for this email must be:

Chinese Placement Test--Essay 2011

This essay will serve as your registration to take the Placement Test. Please use your full English name so that Zhang Laoshi can register you properly on Blackboard for Part II of the test (to be taken on Thursday 8:30-10:00 am, August 25 at Haverford campus).

7. Bryn Mawr students must also notify their Dean's Office by August 10, 2011, in order to register officially for Part II of the Placement Test.

