WILLIAM M. SINGERLY DEAD

New York Times   1857-Current;   Feb 28, 1898; ProQuest Historical Newspapers The New York Times

pg. 7

WILLIAM M. SINGERLY

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.,-William M. Singerly died suddenly at his residence, 45th and Market streets, this morning. He was 65 years old. Mr. Singerly had been suffering for about three months past from a cold, and had for several days been unable to work. He was about 5 feet 7 inches in height, and weighed about 170 pounds.

Mr. Singerly was a member of the Pennsylvania Bar, and had been practicing law for 30 years. He was a member of the Philadelphia Bar Association, and had been active in its work. He was also a member of the Republican Club, and had been a active in its work.

Mr. Singerly was a Democrat, and had been a active in the Democratic Party. He was a member of the Philadelphia Democratic Club, and had been active in its work.

Mr. Singerly was a member of the Philadelphia Bar Association, and had been active in its work. He was also a member of the Republican Club, and had been a active in its work.

Mr. Singerly was a Democrat, and had been a active in the Democratic Party. He was a member of the Philadelphia Democratic Club, and had been active in its work.

Mr. Singerly was a member of the Philadelphia Bar Association, and had been active in its work. He was also a member of the Republican Club, and had been a active in its work.