For our mid-term, I tried a different way of running the test review. Usually, I give a lecture in which I go over the types of problems that might be on the test. This time, I had you do a variety of things. Please rate each of the following components of our test review procedure by circling the number. Not Useful = 1, Somewhat Useful = 2, Very Useful = 3

a. Making my own list of possible topics 1 2 3
b. Evaluating my knowledge of each topic (M/T/U) 1 2 3
c. Creating a potential test question 1 2 3
d. Getting Prof Donnay’s list of possible topics 1 2 3
e. Working through with my group a list of test review questions that Prof Donnay had prepared. 1 2 3

Question 1: Overall did you find our test review procedure a useful way to prepare for the test? Why/Why not?

Question 2: How could the procedure be improved?
