

2011 ISO ASSISTANTS

Omonsefe Atamenwan '13, Nigeria "As an international student, I understand how frightening it may be to come to a different country on your own for a new phase of your life. I also know that having some familiar and informal faces throughout the year can ease that fear." ootamenwan@brynmawr.edu

Shohini Bhattasali '14, India "I really enjoyed my ISO experience last year and felt it was really important. It helped me adapt to not only a college environment but, even living in the U.S." sbhattasal@brynmawr.edu

Siyue Guo '14, China "When I arrived at BMC for the first time last year, I felt the warmth which those ISO assistants brought me. At that time, I was thinking about becoming an assistant this year." sguo@brynmawr.edu

Xinan Li '14, China "Last year, I had a wonderful experience with the ISO assistants which made me think of helping out new frosh to get familiar with the campus." Xli01@brynmawr.edu

Chunan Liu '14, China "From the first few days knowing no one here to having a variety of friends from different countries now, I think that I have accustomed to life here very well as a student." cliu@brynmawr.edu

Saachi Malhotra '14, India "My ISO assistants were wonderful in guiding me." smalhotra@brynmawr.edu

Joey Nyame '13 USA "I have always been interested in learning about other cultures. I also love to help people. I was an ISO assistant last year and thought it was a wonderful experience." jnyame@brynmawr.edu

Kriti Shrestha '14, Nepal "I am excited about working with my Bryn Mawr friends to make the transition to college life comfortable and fun for the class of 2015." kshrestha@brynmawr.edu

Mengyun Tan '14, China "I'm very excited to meet the coming international students. The ISO last year really helped me a lot in adapting to the new college life." mtan01@brynmawr.edu

Tiannan Zhan '14, China "ISO Assistants of my frosh year are the first friends I had. I really appreciate their help and I wish to help next year's international students." tzhan@brynmawr.edu

Yiran Zhang '14, China "As an international student, I gained a lot of good experience during my ISO. I am grateful to the assistants who remained helpful through the year." yzhang03@brynmawr.edu
