

We are pleased you are interested in studying at Bryn Mawr as a visiting international or exchange student. To be considered for admission as an exchange student, you must be currently enrolled at one of the Bryn Mawr College exchange partner institutions. The application requires nomination of candidates by the home institutions, therefore, we advise interested students to contact their respective institution for information. We look forward to having you!

Generally, applicants are required to submit the following documents:

- Fully completed and signed Bryn Mawr College Exchange Student Application
- Official transcript of all college level work completed
- A nomination letter from academic or exchange program advisor approving proposed study at Bryn Mawr College
- An essay
- TOEFL scores
