FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The United States government requires Bryn Mawr College to ensure that you have adequate financial resources to meet expenses while studying here. Funds may come from any dependable source including: scholarships, fellowships, sponsoring agencies, personal or family resources. Documentation of scholarships and fellowships may be in the form of an official award letter from the College or sponsoring agency; documentation of personal or family funds must be on original bank letterhead stationary or in the form of a legally binding Form I-864, "Affidavit of Support", (available on-line at <http://uscis.gov/graphics/formsfee/forms/index.htm>) if the support is provided by a U.S. citizen or permanent residence.

You must submit documentation that you will have $57,050 for the first 9 months of your stay at Bryn Mawr College. This figure does not include travel expenses to and from your home country or expenses incurred while college is not in session.

In making your financial arrangements for your stay at the College, you must realize that:

- a) You will not receive additional financial assistance from the College after you arrive.

AND

- b) You cannot support yourself through on- or off-campus employment. On-campus employment will be available, but limited.

If you receive aid in excess of the educational costs (tuition and fees, but not room and board), you will be liable to pay U.S. federal income tax. The tax rate is 14%, and it is assessed each semester. You may be eligible for a refund the following tax year after you file a federal return.

STUDENTS MUST HAVE SUPPORT EQUAL OR GREATER THAN EXPENSES.

THE FORM I-20 OR DS-2019 WILL NOT BE SENT TO YOU UNLESS OIP RECEIVES THE APPROPRIATE ORIGINAL FINANCIAL DOCUMENTATION INDICATING AMOUNT UP TO OR EXCEEDING TOTAL ESTIMATED EXPENSES. (Neither Electronic nor Faxed copies of financial documents are acceptable.) For the security of your personal information, please do not forward documents electronically.

Before signing this form, please check the following:

- I have carefully read and completed both sides of this form
- I have attached the required original documentation of my financial status and copies of any financial award letters pertaining to my college expenses and a copy of my passport identity page.
- I declare that I have truthfully stated the financial arrangements to support my studies at Bryn Mawr.
- I understand that the cost of living in Bryn Mawr is high, that I CANNOT work to support my studies (except limited on-campus employment) and that I WILL NOT receive additional financial assistance from the College after my arrival.
