

dear community

I wish that people would stop telling international students, "Your English is so good!" Hello, maybe that's because we're forced to speak English thanks to the legacy of colonialism.

I wish we had more of an ongoing dialogue about class and how it factors into our experiences at Bryn Mawr.

I wish more students would learn to stop worrying so much about what they think professional schools, grad schools, employers, and parents think they should be spending their precious college years doing.

I wish that our campus would be more lively, i.e. more people walking around, laying on the grass, playing, etc.

I wish people at Bryn Mawr would just have FUN!

I wish that cultural clubs on this campus weren't forced to validate their existence by organizing culture shows that are largely symbolic.

I wish people didn't mess up the spelling of Rhoads and Glenmede.

I wish people would stop worrying about what others will say and just do what they want to do . . .

I wish for growth, birth, beauty, health and life in 2004's future.

I wish that BMC students realize life is short: enjoy it, love life, love others. —Melissa

I wish people would be more tolerant of smokers on campus.

I wish that the Class of '03 would stop talking shit about '04. Puh-lease.

I wish ISO will be awesome this year!

I wish Bryn Mawr would stop treating smokers like villains and start treating them like real people!

I wish for greater patience within the BMC community.

I wish that more people would attend Sisterhood meetings.

I wish that people didn't choose to identify as "gay" because it's "cool."

I wish that students would always bring their IDs to the dining hall!

I wish for good frosh in my customs group next year.

I wish Mawrtys participated more in class.

I wish that every Mawrtyr will have at least one 6.5 hour dinner break during her years here.

I wish for . . . good luck to all the seniors & everybody else!

For my AWESOME frosh to get awesome frosh! (:

I wish the frosh would participate fully in customs week.

I wish for more prominent, famous guests to speak at BMC.

I wish that Bryn Mawr & the real world weren't so very different.

I wish more people would go to cultural shows.

I wish for less apathy.

I wish that Bryn Mawr had a better social scene.

I wish that chronic streakers would realize that people aren't uptight, they just don't enjoy seeing them naked.

I wish for campus dogs to pet!

I wish people would stop smoking in front of the non-smoking entrance.

I hope that next year's Senior Cocktails are free, don't run out of alcohol, and no one gets naked.

I wish for all of us Mawrtys to maintain the balance with our health and academics in the next few weeks.

I wish people get tested for STIs. 40% of the Mawrtys that go to the nurse practitioner test positive for an STI!

That people would dress appropriately.

I wish this campus wasn't full of fair-weather friends.

I wish everyone the best of luck in the future, especially the class of 2004.

I wish for an inclusive diversity at Bryn Mawr that celebrates everything we bring, not just our ethnicity.

I wish Mawrtys would stop bitching about "how much work" they have.

I wish I didn't have to pay to volunteer. We get so many extra things at the Mawr—that seems essential.

I wish the bulletin boards were organized, that people used them, and that old posting were taken down.

I wish that people came to a cappella concerts.

I wish that the social honor code principle of confrontation was taken more seriously.

I wish that this campus rallied around a cause, any cause.

I wish that the Extreme Keys weren't so freaking hot!

I wish there was less stress on campus and that the workload was not as intense.

I wish for a happy, safe summer for the Bryn Mawr Community.

I wish students would stop complaining and start doing.

I wish Hillary Clinton joined the Hil club

I wish for a beautiful, sunny, gorgeous May Day!

I wish the weeping cherry trees would always be in bloom

I wish for the absence of Muppet Baby noises.

I wish the Historical Society In Philly didn't charge $3/visit.

I wish these pens worked.

I wish people cared about one another rather than trying to kill one another

I wish for abortion not to become illegal

I wish "Mona Lisa Smile" didn't suck

I wish for peace and happiness in the world—Cara Petonic

I wish for the BEST Spring ever—A.V.C.

I wish that Bush would shut up and step down.

I wish for happiness, for me and everyone else.

I wish that we elect anyone but Bush in November.

I wish George weren't President.

I wish there would be a Democratic upset of the White House this November.

I wish that someday this world (and perhaps it can begin with this campus) can help end the stupidity of racism! And finally this world can be equal!

I wish that it stays warm and sunny forever.

I wish law schools weren't such bitches

I wish it was Spring all the time.

I wish for happiness and peace for all people

I wish for world peace

I wish that everyone in the world could for a moment stand outside together, breathe, look up at the sky, and appreciate the world.

I wish gas weren't so expensive!

I wish for the March for Women's Lives to be a great success!

I wish for sunny, warm days.

I wish the acedias didn't come. . .ahhh!

I wish Brian Kinney was a real person so I could get with him. A lot.—JCM '0?

I wish for peace and good will among women (and men).

I wish for world peace

I wish that we knew more about and could cure AIDS.

I wish more people would appreciate each other and life more.

I wish for the death of Pennsylvania Turnpike EZPass tolls.

I wish people would see themselves as beautiful human beings.

I wish for beautiful weather here-on, and that it won't be too hot this summer.

I wish our college was #1 in US News & World Reports

I wish that all the queer folk weren't freaking homophobes

I wish rugby would kick Drexel's ass this weekend!

I wish that people would vote

I wish that everyone would be allowed to get married.

I wish Bush will not win the next election.

I wish that we get sun for the rest of the year

I wish for freedom

I wish that a cure for cancer is discovered—EP '07

I wish that I didn't feel guilty about buying things at most stores. Corporate America sucks.

I wish there was more tolerance and compassion in the world.

I wish the war in Iraq would end.

I wish that it stays warm!

I wish that science and ethics could reach equilibrium

I wish that George W. Bush gets a bad case of lockjaw and shuts the hell up for once.

I wish that for 2 minutes everyone in the world would walk out onto the street and just stop and realize how much power we could have if we all joined together.

I wish that Dennis Kucinich would win the Presidential election.

I wish for a warm and sunny graduation.

I wish for a warm and sunny May Day

I wish for world peace (as always) and for a fun summer.

I wish for peace on earth!

I wish for an end for deforestation, pollution, overpopulation and mindless consumption.

I wish for a wonderful summer!

I wish that we were not at war.

I wish the sky would always be blue like this—KR 2005

I wish that there was a cure for leukemia.

I wish more people would vote (here and in the real world).

I wish we had no labels here.
