

Bryn Mawr College

Funding Recipients ~ Summer 2010

Each year, Bryn Mawr provides support for 170 students engaged in summer internships and research projects, with funding totaling nearly $600,000. The College is dedicated to offering as many students as possible the opportunity to undertake an unpaid summer work or research experience to further their academic, professional, and/or personal interests based on the belief that these experiences contribute to one's overall liberal arts education.

For more information about the summer funding programs at Bryn Mawr, see:
