

Higher Education Resource Services (HERS)

and Bryn Mawr College

Announce the 31st annual SUMMER INSTITUTE FOR WOMEN IN HIGHER EDUCATION ADMINISTRATION

June 25 through July 21, 2006

at Bryn Mawr College

Curricular Units

Academic Environment

Strategic development
Academic change process
Teaching and learning
Faculty development
Student development

External Environment

Financing higher education
Tuition and financial aid
Demographic trends
Institutional accountability
Role of the media
Technology and on-line education
Political, social and economic trends

Institutional Environment

Budgeting processes, accounting, auditing
Endowments, fundraising, capital campaigns
Higher education law
Human resources
Facilities management

Professional Development

Leadership skills
Managing change
Career planning
Professional networks
Wellness
Global education
Athletics

Contacting the Summer Institute

Lisa Zernicke, Associate Director, Summer Institute for Women in Higher Education Administration, Bryn Mawr College, 101 North Merion Avenue, Bryn Mawr PA 19010-2899
610-526-7325 • lzernick@brynmawr.edu

Judith S. White, Executive Director, HERS, Chambers Center,
University of Denver, 1901 East Asbury Avenue, Denver CO 80208
303-871-6866 • jwhite28@du.edu

Website: www.brynmawr.edu/summerinstitute

2006 Fees: | $6800 | which includes tuition, room and board, and instructional materials; payable by June 1. There is a non-refundable application fee of $75, which must be submitted with your application.

Application deadline for the 2006 program is March 15, 2006.

What is the Summer Institute?

A residential program offering women administrators and faculty intensive training. Four curricular units provide participants with a comprehensive institutional perspective on current issues in higher education. Emphasis is on the globalization of higher education and the growing diversity of the student body and work force.

How will it benefit your institution?

Every campus needs at every level energized leadership, networked nationally and internationally, and leadership well-informed and focused on cutting-edge issues.

Who should attend?

Members of your institution ready to move to the next level of leadership — Assistant Vice Presidents, Deans, Associate Deans, Department Chairs, and Directors.

Help us work with your institution

Identify your key leaders in faculty and administrative development, diversity and campus leadership initiatives. Tell us who they are and how we can reach them by phone, fax or email.