BRYN MAWR
STUDENT FINANCIAL SERVICES
2016-2017 Noncustodial Parent Waiver Petition

Student Name:_______________________________   Bryn Mawr College ID:________________

College policy requires financial information from both parents, whether never married, separated or divorced, to determine need for Bryn Mawr Grant. If you have special circumstances that warrant consideration of a waiver, you must complete this form in full, providing three statements with attached documentation as detailed below.

Three signed and dated statements providing detailed information regarding your special circumstances. One letter should be from the student and/or custodial parent. Others providing documentation must have first-hand knowledge of your situation and include relationship to the student, name, a signature and phone number.

Statement from the student and/or custodial parent explaining in detail why it is impossible to provide noncustodial parent information. Documentation is required to substantiate your situation: court documents, police reports, restraining orders

Statements from third parties close to the student’s situation explaining in detail why it is impossible to provide noncustodial parent information (high school counselor, doctor, mental health professional, social worker, attorney, clergy, law enforcement). Must be on letterhead with original signature.
