30 DAY GRACE PERIOD TO ENTER THE UNITED STATES

“As of January 1, 2003, exchange visitors can enter the United States no more than 30 days before the program start date listed on their DS-2019” (8 CFR 214.2 (j) (1) (ii)

- You may be denied entry into the United States at the port of entry if you arrive early even though you have a valid DS-2019.

- You might be admitted, but in a different visa/immigration status (as a tourist for example) other than the J-1 status. This can pose a lot of challenges and you will be unable to engage in the activities otherwise available to you as a J-1 exchange visitor.

CUSTOMS INSPECTION AT U.S PORT OF ENTRY

- When you arrive at a U.S. airport, you will go first to immigration inspection. Make sure you remember to present your DS-2019 along with your passport and visa to the border official so that you will enter the U.S. as an Exchange Visitor (J-1 status). Pack these documents in your carry-on bags because you will not pick up your luggage until afterwards.

- Border procedures require digital imaging of fingerprints and a photograph, and verification of your record in the SEVIS system (the U.S. government student database), this process may take some time. Allow for 2 to 3 hours between connecting flights.

- If the immigration inspector cannot immediately find your record, he or she may ask you to go to a “second station” where the officer has a little more time to find your record. Do not panic – this does not mean there is a problem.

- If there is a problem, during office hours, call The Pensby Center at (610-526-7390). After 5:00 p.m. or on weekends, call Campus Safety at 610-526-7911.

- Collect your documents from the immigration officer and secure them safely with your personal items.

- Continue on your journey to campus!
