ACTIVITIES & ORIENTATION ASSISTANT JOB DESCRIPTION
2020-2021

Introduction
Bryn Mawr College believes that living with other students is a valuable part of the college experience. The Activities & Orientation Assistants (AOAs) are vital part of the mission both within the dorm and in the campus community helping to create a vibrant, purposeful, and supportive college community where students make a difference, develop healthy and meaningful relationships with others, advocate for their interests, learn about themselves, and develop leadership and life skills.

Statement of Duties
The Activities & Orientation Assistant is a sophomore or junior assigned to a residence hall who assists in oversight of the first-year program within their assigned dorm. AOAs also provide educational and social programming to the campus community. They are mentored by the First-Year Experience Coordinator and supervised by the Director of Student Activities & Orientation.

Roles and Responsibilities
Community Development and Resource:
• Take initiative to get to know your CPs, DLT members, new and other students in your dorm.
• Maintain a strong and visible presence within the dorm.
• Model positive behavior that aligns with the Honor Code and serve as a role model to all students.
• Follow guidelines for community living and address behavior which impacts the life of the community and its members.
• Act as a resource to all students in getting involved and having fun on campus and in Philadelphia.
• Act as a resource on transportation options in getting to and around Philadelphia.
• Be knowledgeable about campus resources, policies, and offerings of Student Activities & Orientation.

Event Management and Staffing
• Publicize, manage, and staff events and trips planned by the Student Activities & Office and student clubs regardless of interest taking into consideration SA&O event management policies and procedures.
• Staff student parties to ensure a safe environment and compliance with College policies and intervene and if necessary, contact Campus Safety for assistance.
• Complete event report forms following each event, party, or trip.

Customs and New Student Orientation (Customs Week)
• Assist in Customs Person selection process, including candidate interviews and placement.
• Assist in planning New Student Orientation.
• Staff all events and activities taking place during New Student Orientation.
• Be a resource to all new students and their families, and other DLT members during New Student Orientation.

Peer Educator

• Successfully complete Certified Peer Educator course.
• Assist in design and implementation of Customs Person training.
• Assist in providing dorm based educational sessions on alcohol, drugs, hazing, and bystander intervention.
• Provide educational sessions to new students throughout the academic year with assigned THRIVE Mentor.

Peer Supervisor

• Provide leadership, support, and supervision to the Customs People who reside in your assigned dorm(s).

Student Activities & Orientation Team Member

Activities & Orientation Assistants are required to attend and participate in bi-weekly team meetings, bi-weekly mentor sessions, weekly CP team meetings, and educational trainings sessions. AOAs are expected to maintain regular contact with their DLT, CPs, and all new students who reside in their assigned dorm. In addition, it is expected that AOAs will accomplish the following:

• Successfully complete all mandatory online education modules.
• Attend all DLT and CP training sessions (please note that these sessions are mandatory).
• Host one open office hour per week in your dorm.
• Facilitate one dorm program each semester for all new students in your dorm.
• Host one mixer with Traditions for WTF Week (with another dorm).
• Plan two social events for your CPs each semester.
• Staff parties and events as representatives of Student Activities & Orientation taking into consideration event management policies and procedures.
• Assist student clubs and individual students on planning events and parties.
• Assist with office tasks as needed.
• Attend weekly SGA meetings in a rotation with other AOAs.

Dorm Leadership Team Member

As members of Dorm Leadership Teams, students are encouraged to work together to achieve group goals and maintain positive communities throughout the residence halls. It is expected that students will take their roles in the DLT seriously and that they will communicate effectively with teammates and with support staff (Deans' Office, Residential Life, Student Activities & Orientation, or Pensby Center) to do so. In addition to collaborating within dorm spaces to create safe, productive residential environments, it is expected that DLT members will accomplish the following tasks:

• Educate the dorm community about various responsibilities of the DLT and the positions within the DLT, as well as the support resources that each position offers.
• Maintain a strong presence within the dorm by keeping office hours, being available during high-need periods, and other mechanisms.
• Communicate with administrators, namely the DLT support staff, when situations arise that warrant administrator input or involvement.
• Attend all DLT training sessions, which occur before the start of the academic year and throughout each semester.
• Attend to the administrative tasks associated with a DLT position.
• Attend 2 meetings with fellow DLT members per semester, as coordinated and facilitated by the dorm presidents and Residential Life Staff.

In order to ensure that DLT members can achieve the above tasks, all DLT members are limited to holding only one position within the DLT. If a DLT member fails to satisfactorily complete the above tasks, the DLT support staff reserves the right to hold students to their position agreement, including the removal from the DLT.

Title IX Responsibilities
Activities & Orientation Assistants are responsible people for all students matriculated at Bryn Mawr College and are required to report any information related to sexual assault, harassment and discrimination to the Title IX Coordinator.

Assignment to Specific Dorm and Room
AOAs will be assigned a specific room by the selection committee and will have responsibility for a specific dorm or dorms. Acceptance of the position requires acceptance of the room assignment.

Academic Standards
Activities & Orientation Assistants must be in good academic standing, not on warning or probation, and must be enrolled full-time for the duration of their appointment.

Employment Terms
Activities & Orientation Assistants make a voluntary commitment to serve the community. The principal benefits of are the personal growth and experiences that come from working with and helping a diverse and talented group of students; however, AOAs also earn an hourly wage. An average of 5 hours of work can be expected each week within the dorm. Additional hours may be worked through managing and staffing event sponsored by Student Activities & Orientation, student parties, and student club events.

Length of Appointment
Activities & Orientation Assistants are appointed for one academic year beginning August 20, 2020; however, mandatory trainings and meetings begin prior to the start of the next academic year. Compensation is not provided for mandatory sessions which take place prior to August 20, 2020.

Mandatory Spring and Summer Commitments:

- April SA&O Team Hangout
- April New CP Hangout
- April and May New Student Orientation and Customs Training Meetings
- August New Student Orientation Conference Calls

Eligibility
The Activities & Orientation Assistant position is open to any rising Sophomore, Junior or Senior that have successfully completed THRIVE and all required online tutorials as a first-year student. Students who are planning to go abroad during the year of their AOA appointment are not eligible to apply.

DLT members are limited to holding only one position within the DLT.

Eligibility for Reappointment
Activities & Orientation Assistants are eligibility to re-apply for a second or third year. Eligibility, however, does not constitute a commitment of reappointment.
Termination

Termination, by mutual agreement, may be affected at any time. This appointment is also subject to termination by the Student Activities & Orientation Office and/or Undergraduate Dean’s Office prior to its normal expiration if the enrollment of the student employee at Bryn Mawr College ceases. The appointment may also be terminated for serious failure to satisfactorily meet position responsibilities and/or commitments, failure to academic or employment standards, or conduct that violates College policies or that does not meet the standards of behavior set by the College or the Student Activities & Orientation Office. Upon termination of employment by the student employee, the College or mutual agreement, remuneration will be pro-rated to cover only that period for which the individual was employed. In most cases, the termination will include relocation to another room and/or dorm.

Application Procedures

Activities & Orientation Assistants are appointed by the Director of Student Activities & Orientation on recommendation from a committee comprised of both students and staff members of the College. Application materials are available online at https://www.brynmawr.edu/activities/dorm-leadership-team-application. All application materials, including required recommendation forms, must be submitted online by Friday, February 7, 2020.

All AOA applicants will be interviewed. Candidates must sign-up for an interview online at https://www.brynmawr.edu/activities/dorm-leadership-team-application.

Appointments, including mandatory dorm and room assignments, will be announced on Monday, March 23, 2020 via email.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

MB Horvath, Ed.D.
Director of Student Activities & Orientation

mhorvath@brynmawr.edu

BRYN MAWR COLLEGE is an Equal Opportunity Employer. (EOE M/F)