A total of 18 units, including four units of Field Instruction and 3 elective units, are required for the MSS degree. Field Education must be taken in consecutive years and concurrently with a practice course.

FOUNDATION COURSES – 10 units

FALL
- B501 Foundation Practice I
- B503 Research Informed Practice I
- B505 Theoretical Perspectives in Social Work I
- B517 Social Policy
- B521 Field Education I

SPRING
- B502 Foundation Practice II
- B504 Research Informed Practice II
- B522 Field Education II
- B540 Multiculturalism: Power Privilege & Oppression
  AND
- B506 Assessment/Psychopathology (if intending Clinical Concentration)
  OR
- B508 Community Assessment (if intending Community Practice, Policy & Advocacy Concentration)

All students enrolled in B501 (Foundation Practice I) in the Fall semester must take the ½ day seminar – B555 Ethics in Social Work – offered during winter break (required for graduation)

CONCENTRATION REQUIREMENTS – 5 units

Students can enroll in only one concentration: Clinical Social Work OR Community Practice, Policy, and Advocacy

Beginning AY 2019 -2020, All Students Will Be Required to Take “Trauma Informed Social Work” In Their Concentration Year

Clinical Social Work Concentration:

FALL
- B535 Clinical Social Work I
- B541 Field Education III
- B____ Trauma Informed Social Work

SPRING
- B536 Clinical Social Work II
- B542 Field Education IV

OR

Community Practice, Policy, and Advocacy Concentration:

FALL
- B531 Community Practice, Policy & Advocacy I
- B541 Field Education III
- B____ Trauma Informed Social Work

SPRING
- B532 Community Practice, Policy & Advocacy II
- B542 Field Education IV

ELECTIVES – 3 units

(Electives are offered in both SUMMER Sessions and in the FALL and SPRING semesters)

- Elective 1
- Elective 2
- Elective 3