African American Museum internship

Summer 2018

Philadelphia, PA

Application: https://brynmawr.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_0N9ERJXCNNEEkiOx

Application Deadline: April 2nd

The African American Museum seeks an intern to help the museum develop public programs. The intern would consider the AAMP’s lineup of special exhibitions and look for programmatic contextualization, including discussions, films, tours, and performances. This intern would work on the conceptualization of events taking place through the end of the calendar years 2018, planning and coordination of more immediate scheduled events, and could influence some of the marketing that comes out of my area, including email and social.

About the Museum

The African American Museum in Philadelphia is the first institution built by a major United States city to house and interpret the life and work of African Americans. It showcases the richness and vibrancy of African American heritage and culture in four magnificent exhibition galleries and through public programs and cultural events.

Contact:

James Claiborne
Manager of Public Programs
African American Museum of Philadelphia
Email: jclaiborne@aampmuseum.org