Abstract:
In this talk we will discuss a class of quasilinear wave equations $\Box u = F(u, u', u'')$ whose special structure ensures the existence of a globally defined solution given sufficiently small initial data. We will explore classical PDE methods used to address this question, including energy and Sobolev estimates, and also a new approach involving a “change of variables” via a special transformation.