The Logo

This is the Bryn Mawr College logo.

It is strong and decisive while being classic and elegant. A Humanist influence in the letterforms pay homage to the stonework around campus.
The Bryn Mawr logo was carefully created using proportional spacial considerations. Never tamper with the logo or any of its elements.

The outermost dotted line indicates the minimum amount of clear space the logo requires. No external graphics should ever come closer to the logo than this line.
This is the shortened Bryn Mawr logo, lacking the word “College.” This version can be used interchangeably with the other configurations.
Within limited horizontal spaces, the stacked logo can be used.
Additional Design Elements

This element references the rich tradition of lanterns at Bryn Mawr. The element should be used not instead of the logo, but as an auxiliary design element. It should always appear small and never be overpowering.

The “lit” lantern was introduced with the Defy Expectation Campaign for Bryn Mawr.
The Bryn Mawr College monogram is another auxiliary element. It can be used either very small or very large.
Using the Logo and Graphic Elements

These examples show allowable uses of the logo and elements together.

Because Carter Sans and National might not be available to everyone working at Bryn Mawr, Arial and Georgia can be used for internal documents. These should only be used for internal documents in Word, Excel, and Powerpoint when Carter Sans and National are not available.

Never use these to design marketing and customer-facing materials.
With so many sub-brands at Bryn Mawr, the identity guidelines must be flexible to allow for various configurations.

Various sub-brand relationships are available within the Bryn Mawr brand family.

These are examples of prominent sub-brands (institutes and organizations; special lecture series).
