A World Apart

Exploring a foreign land is a quest to discover. And there is no better way to immerse yourself in a new place than under the guidance of an expert who can show you what most tourists never see and can tell you the stories behind the scenes. Join us in Holland and Belgium, where you’ll glide past elegant, historic houses and glimpse the centuries of history along Holland and Belgium’s waterways! When you arrive into a Dutch or a Belgian port, your Travel Director awaits with a warm smile, ready to assist you with anything you need. On board, your lecturers, whose regional expertise shines in their insider perspective, will make history come alive with their insights and commentary.

The incomparable value of your journey lies in the personalized care you receive from your Travel Director and the knowledge you gain from high-caliber professional lecturers and lecturers who call this area home. By eliminating logistical worries, your multilingual Travel Director allows you to focus on the journey itself.

You can craft your own travel experience, and you’re never alone. That’s why we design itineraries that allow you to craft an individual travel experience. Choose from a variety of excursions based on your interests—art, architecture, culture, cuisine, history, natural beauty—and learn about the Dutch speakers of Flanders and the French- and Dutch-speaking Walloons of Wallonia. The ship remains docked in Antwerp tonight.

Add a truly memorable chapter to your travels on this carefree and enjoyable river cruise. You’ll visit the home of Rembrandt and Vermeer, but also the home of chocolate, in the heart of Europe. This time, you’re taking the scenic route. It’s as if you’re gliding on a river of history and culture, leaving stress behind. The ship sails to Willemstad, where it overnights.

The ship arrives in Kampen early this morning. As the ship cruises this evening, enjoy a discovery of the 1953 flood that now protects the third of the landmass in the Netherlands. Join the half-day Elective Activity or sail to Kampen.
