Resources For Living: Your Employee Assistance Program

Resources For Living EAP services provide you with confidential access to assistance and resources to help you live and work well.

Aetna is the brand name used for products and services offered through the Aetna group of subsidiary companies. The EAP is administered by Aetna Behavioral Health, LLC and Aetna Life Insurance Company (Aetna).

This material is for informational purposes only and is neither an offer of coverage nor medical advice. It contains only a partial, general description of programs and services and does not constitute a contract. Aetna is not a provider of health care services and, therefore, cannot guarantee any results or outcomes. All participating providers are independent contractors and are neither agents nor employees of Aetna. The availability of any particular network provider cannot be guaranteed and is subject to change.

All EAP calls are confidential, except as required by law (i.e., when a person's emotional condition is a threat to himself/herself or others, or there is suspected abuse of a minor child, and in some areas, spousal or elder abuse).

Information is believed to be accurate as of the production date; however, it is subject to change. For more information about Aetna plans, refer to www.aetna.com.
