LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR

Dear Students and Families,

Welcome to the Bryn Mawr College Office of Financial Aid.

This handbook has been prepared to give you detailed information about the College’s financial aid policies and procedures for the 2017–2018 academic year. Our team is available to support you throughout the financial aid process and serve as a resource.

At Bryn Mawr, we view the financing of higher education as a partnership between the family, the state and federal governments, and the institution. The primary goal of the Office of Financial Aid is to help students from all socioeconomic backgrounds gain access to the College’s educational opportunities. The College is committed to meeting the demonstrated financial need of all accepted students. Recognizing that each family brings a unique set of circumstances, our dedicated staff strive to provide individualized service to help navigate the financial aid process with confidence.

In addition to our office, the College’s Office of Student Accounts offers several billing and payment options for families. Their staff is available to provide guidance in navigating student account information regarding tuition and fees, payment due dates, accessing your e-statement, and other frequently asked questions.

We hope that the pages to follow will help simplify the process for you. Please note that Bryn Mawr’s policies, procedures and terminology are subject to change at any time. Please refer to our website or contact us directly for the most up-to-date information.

We look forward to working with you.

Sincerely,

ETHEL M. DESMARAI
DIRECTOR, OFFICE OF FINANCIAL AID
POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Bryn Mawr College believes that financing a private education is a partnership of the family, state and federal governments and the institution. Financial aid is intended to supplement the resources of the family where needed to meet the expenses of a Bryn Mawr education and is administered on the basis of College policy and demonstrated eligibility. Information and instructions about the deadlines and forms required to apply for aid from the College are available under the Apply for Aid section at www.brynmawr.edu/financial-aid.

STUDENT BUDGET (COST OF EDUCATION)
The cost of education at Bryn Mawr includes the billed costs of tuition, fees, room and board, and an estimated cost for personal expenses, and books and supplies ($2,000). The travel allowance varies by home state ranging from $80 to $900.

Bryn Mawr College bills students and disburses loans and grant funds by semester. Federal Work Study funds are paid directly to the student on a bi-weekly basis depending on hours worked and are not credited to the student billing account.

Tuition and fees cover only a portion of the amount that Bryn Mawr College spends to educate a student. Gifts from alumnae and friends, income from the college endowment and the current operating budget cover the balance of the costs.

DETERMINING FINANCIAL AID AWARD

A student’s eligibility for need-based aid is the difference between the total cost of education and the expected family contribution.

\text{Cost of Education} - \text{Expected Family Contribution} = \text{Need}

Bryn Mawr may meet eligibility through the following types of assistance: Federal Work-Study, Federal Direct Loan, Bryn Mawr Grant, and in some cases, Federal Perkins Loan, Federal Pell Grant and Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunities Grant (FSEOG).

The Office of Financial Aid may estimate the student’s eligibility for federal and state assistance. College policy requires that federal and state grants, tuition benefits and entitlements replace an equal amount of Bryn Mawr Grant and/or FSEOG Grant. The total amount of aid the student receives, including outside scholarships, cannot exceed the determined eligibility for aid or, in the case of non need-based aid, the total cost of education.

PARENT CONTRIBUTION

Bryn Mawr determines the expected parent contribution through a need-analysis formula applied to the information submitted on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), the CSS/Financial Aid PROFILE®, the CSS Noncustodial PROFILE® and the federal tax returns. The need-analysis system considers the family’s income, assets, living costs based on the size of the family, number of children in college and other information specific to the family situation.

FINANCIAL AID SELF SERVICE

Students can view their award information on the Web through BIONIC. By using their Bryn Mawr College user ID and password, students can access the Student Center and their Financial Aid “To Do List” to check their awards.

Students may accept or decline their grants online. Students may accept, decline, or reduce their loans online. Federal Work Study awards are not credited to student accounts and cannot be accepted online. To decline a work study award, a student must send written notice to the Office of Financial Aid or an e-mail to finaid@brynmawr.edu.

See page 21 for self-service instructions.
A standard allowance for living expenses, based on the size of the family, is used in determining financial aid eligibility. Since families maintain different standards of living, the use of a standard allowance ensures that aid is distributed equitably among applicants. Differences in family circumstances and unusual necessary expenses, such as very high uninsured medical bills, may be considered. Siblings in graduate school and parents in college are not considered.

The parent contribution measures a family’s ability to absorb educational costs over time on a comparative basis. Most families will use a combination of current income, savings, educational loans and a payment plan to meet the family contribution. Descriptions of these programs are available in this handbook and in other materials mailed to admitted students.

When a student’s biological or adoptive parents are divorced, separated or were never married, both are expected to provide financial information. The College is not bound by family agreement or court agreement in the awarding of its own institutional funds. The custodial parent and step-parent, if any, must supply financial information on the FAFSA and the CSS/Financial Aid PROFILE®. The noncustodial parent and that parent’s spouse, if any, must supply information on the CSS/Noncustodial PROFILE. The noncustodial parent’s spouse’s income and assets are ultimately excluded from the need analysis.

STUDENT CONTRIBUTION
Bryn Mawr students are expected to contribute to the cost of their education, and to apply for federal and state aid programs. The minimum expected contribution from summer savings is $2,400 for first-year students. Incremental increases may be expected annually. A student who chooses not to work, is unable to work or unable to save from summer earnings may be able to borrow a loan or obtain an outside scholarship to fill the gap. The College will not offer additional grant assistance to replace the summer savings obligation, nor will the College replace state grant funds forfeited due to a late state grant application. Each student is also expected to contribute at least one-fourth of any personal assets held in the student’s name at the time of the initial application for each year that aid is received.

BOOKS
Textbooks will need to be purchased at the start of each semester. The average annual cost for books is $1,000 or $500 per semester. The Bryn Mawr College Bookshop offers a new tool to help students compare bookshop prices alongside online sites. Students can find this tool at the website: http://brynmawr.verbacompare.com/

Pell-eligible students whose federal aid funds, when disbursed, would create a credit balance are able to receive an advance of that credit balance to help purchase books and supplies no later than the seventh day from the start of classes. The amount of the advance will be the lesser of the presumed credit balance or the amount needed by the student as determined by the College.

Students who expect to have a credit balance on their student account once a loan or federal funds are disbursed may contact the Student Account Office to request funds be placed on their OneCard to purchase books at the College Bookshop. Students can find information about College refund procedures on the Student Account website: https://www.brynmawr.edu/studentaccounts/refunds-student-accounts-andor-onecard-option.

Verification is complete when all requested forms and documentation have been submitted and reviewed for accuracy. Verification documents should be submitted within 30 days of the initial request, but no later than 120 days after the last day of the student’s enrollment.

IRS Data Retrieval or Tax Return Transcript: Students and/or parents may be required to confirm FAFSA tax data via IRS Data Retrieval or by submitting to Bryn Mawr a Tax Return Transcript directly from the IRS. Request a Tax Return Transcript at www.irs.gov/ transcript or call 1 (800) 908-9946. Answer security questions to confirm identity. The IRS site states that a transcript will arrive by mail in five to 10 business days. Alternatively, the student and/or parent may download the Tax Return Transcript online. Students and/or parents who are not required to file a tax return must request IRS Form 4506T and check box 7 to confirm non-filing status.

Until verification is complete, Bryn Mawr cannot credit a federal grant or loan to the student’s account; the student cannot be employed under the Federal Work Study Program; and the Office of Financial Aid will not certify a Federal Direct Loan application.

Conflicting Information: The Office of Financial Aid must resolve conflicting information even if the student is not selected for verification before federal aid can be disbursed. Conflicting information may require a reevaluation of your prior year’s federal financial aid award. Conflicting information could include, but is not limited to, number of household members, number in college, marital status, tax filing status, etc.

If changes are made to the student’s award during the verification process, the Office of Financial Aid will send a revised award letter or notify the student by e-mail that changes have been made and can be viewed electronically through BIONIC.

IRS Data Retrieval: The Office of Financial Aid encourages students to complete their FAFSA on the Web at www.fafsa.ed.gov, using IRS Data Retrieval; an easier, faster way to enter federal income tax information on the FAFSA. The process allows electronically submitted tax information to complete specific elements of the FAFSA, simplifying the verification process.

If IRS Data Retrieval is not used or if changes are made to FAFSA data retrieved earlier, students and parents may be required to submit IRS federal income tax transcripts to complete the federal verification process.

In some cases, students and parents may not be able to use IRS Data Retrieval. Please see detail:
- tax filing status is “married filing separately”
- tax status is “head of household”
- If filed an amended tax return
- If filed a foreign tax return
- If filed paper taxes within the last 8 weeks

If students are selected for verification and cannot use IRS Data Retrieval, they must submit IRS federal income tax transcripts for themselves and their parents whose information is required on the FAFSA as well as untaxed income information to the Office of Financial Aid.

The submission of IRS tax data or IRS tax transcripts does not satisfy Bryn Mawr’s requirement that undergraduate students who apply for a non-federal Bryn Mawr Grant submit full signed and dated federal income tax returns, both personal and business, all pages, schedules and attachments, including W2 forms, to the Institutional Documentation Service (IDOC).

REVISING FINANCIAL AID AWARDS

Awards may be revised or canceled if a student withdraws, enrolls less than full-time, changes housing status to commuting from home (living with a parent or guardian in residence), has a change in family circumstances, provides information on the FAFSA that differs from other documents received, or receives outside assistance.

Students who enroll less than full-time must report all enrollment changes to the Office of Financial Aid each term.

Eligibility for financial aid is not affected for students approved to move off-campus by the Residential Life off-campus lottery process. Beginning fall 2017, the Office of Financial Aid will use the same student cost of attendance budget for both on and off campus residents. The College does not offer institutional grant for living expenses that exceed the cost of living on campus. The family contribution is calculated the same way for students who live on and off campus.

Students who are approved by the Dean of the Undergraduate College to commute from home (with a parent or guardian in residence) must notify the Office of Financial Aid of their housing status. Eligibility for financial aid may be affected.
RENEWING FINANCIAL AID AWARDS

Students must reapply for financial aid each year of enrollment. The financial aid deadline for continuing students is April 15. Only students who applied for financial aid from the College at the time of admission will be considered for grant assistance from the College in subsequent years of enrollment.

The College cannot guarantee that a continuing student will receive 100 percent of the determined eligibility if the application is received after the April 15 deadline. All applicants must apply on time to their state scholarship programs each year. Some states will send grant applications. Bryn Mawr College will not replace forfeited state grants.

Tuition and fee increases are customary and are used in determining the renewal award amounts. The family contribution is reassessed each year on the basis of the new information supplied on the FAFSA, CSS/Financial Aid PROFILE, and supporting documents.

The level of financial aid may change as a function of increased College costs and changes in family circumstances. The amounts and types of aid also depend on the amounts of federal and other funds that are made available to the College each year.

Financial aid will normally be offered to students for eight semesters only. A student may appeal for a ninth semester of Bryn Mawr grant if there is a mitigating reason, such as a medical leave of absence.

APPEALING FINANCIAL AID AWARDS

Applicants may appeal a financial aid award by submitting a written request with applicable documentation to the Office of Financial Aid. Appeals will be considered if the student or family submits additional information that was not originally reviewed, or if there is a documented change in family circumstances. Appeals that require an exception to College policy will be referred to the Financial Aid Policy and Appeal Committee comprised of senior college administrators.

The College reserves the right to implement a deadline on the appeal process.

JUNIOR YEAR ABROAD

Students who are approved to study abroad by the Foreign Studies Committee may receive financial aid funding for Junior Year Abroad (JYA) programs for federal and institutional funds. To receive funds, students must demonstrate eligibility. Applications for financial aid must be completed and returned by April 15. Scholarships from sponsoring agencies awarded to students studying abroad will reduce the amount of the College’s JYA grants.

DOMESTIC ABROAD

Students who study as guest students at another U.S. institution are not eligible for Bryn Mawr Grant during their domestic abroad semester but may be eligible for federal grants and loans if certain conditions are met. To be eligible for federal funds, domestic abroad students must be in good academic standing at Bryn Mawr during the term immediately prior to study away. The student’s academic dean must approve participation in the program and confirm that the courses taken will count toward the student’s Bryn Mawr degree in accordance with the College’s transfer credit policies.

Domestic abroad students must provide the Office of Financial Aid with the address of the visiting school so the College can partner with the visiting school to process federal loans and grants via a Consortium Agreement. A Consortium Agreement verifies the student’s costs and enrollment at a visiting school provided the courses taken will count toward a degree at Bryn Mawr.

OUTSIDE SCHOLARSHIPS AND ASSISTANCE

Outside scholarships are awards made by outside organizations including national or local scholarship programs, religious, fraternal, social and scholastic organizations.

Federal and state grants, tuition benefits, and entitlements are not considered outside scholarships, but rather are considered a direct resource to the students in determining their eligibility for College aid in the same manner as the calculated family contribution and will replace an equal amount of Bryn Mawr Grant and/or FSEOG.

Students must report the sources of outside scholarships and assistance to the Office of Financial Aid so the additional funds can be incorporated in determining eligibility for need-based aid.

Treatment of Outside Scholarships for domestic students receiving need-based College aid

Bryn Mawr allows outside scholarships and grant awards to reduce the student resource expectation, which includes a summer savings requirement, loan, and academic year employment award. For most students receiving need-based college aid, the student resource expectation is $9,900, consisting of $2,000 in student employment income, a $5,500 loan expectation and a $2,400 summer saving requirement. Bryn Mawr Grant will only be reduced when the total of outside scholarships or grants is greater than the student resource expectation. See examples 1 and 2 at the bottom of the page.

An outside grant or scholarship cannot replace the student’s parent contribution or the student’s asset contribution.

A student may not be able to replace the entire amount of the student resource expectation with outside awards due to eligibility requirements for federal and state need-based aid.

* The summer savings requirement can only be reduced if the student has not actually earned the funds as shown on the financial aid application and the tax return.

TREATMENT OF OUTSIDE SCHOLARSHIPS AND ASSISTANCE FOR STUDENTS RECEIVING COLLEGE MERIT AID

The amount of Bryn Mawr merit aid will not be reduced for students receiving outside scholarship and entitlements unless the total amount of the merit aid and the outside scholarship and entitlements exceed the cost of attendance, in which case the merit award will be reduced such that the total aid does not exceed the cost of attendance. See example 3 at the bottom of the page.

FEDERAL OVER AWARDS

A federal over-award occurs when a student is receiving more need-based aid than the demonstrated need as determined by the U.S. Department of Education from the information provided on the FAFSA. If a federal over-award occurs, causing a student to lose eligibility for the Subsidized Federal Direct Loan Program, the Office of Financial Aid will advise the student of any eligibility remaining under the Unsubsidized Federal Direct Loan Program.

Students are encouraged to keep their borrowing to a minimum and to borrow less if receiving outside scholarships. Students will be invited to make this choice.

A student who loses eligibility for Federal Work Study because of an outside scholarship may still have the option to work on campus, depending on the availability of jobs, scheduling, and current College Student Employment policy.

Many announcements about local community scholarships and support are made after the College’s initial financial aid award offer. Students receiving outside scholarships must inform the Office of Financial Aid as soon as possible so they can make necessary adjustments and provide notification of award changes.

INDEPENDENT STUDENT STATUS

For purposes of federal aid only, Bryn Mawr will consider students independent who meet the federal criteria. To determine if the student meets the federal definition of independent status, go to www.fafsa.gov and view the video “FAFSA: Determining Your Dependency Status.”

For purposes of Bryn Mawr’s institutional grant, if a student receives aid as a dependent of the parents in the first award year, the student will be considered a dependent for all subsequent years at Bryn Mawr. For purposes of institutional support, this status will not change, regardless of family relationships or a change in family relationships once the student has entered college.

Students who believe they qualify for aid as independent students should write a letter addressed to the Director of Financial Aid.

The types of financial aid that may appear on the student’s award letter are described below. Eligibility is determined based on unique family circumstances in compliance with institutional, federal, and state policies, and may not include all types of aid described here.

Only students who are U.S. citizens or eligible noncitizens are eligible for the federal aid programs listed here. For more information on federal eligibility, go to StudentAid.gov/eligibility.

The College’s Office of Development asks all students who are eligible to receive a Bryn Mawr Grant or Merit Scholarship to write an annual thank-you letter to the generous alumnae and friends who support our aid programs. Many donors truly appreciate hearing from the current students they help to support.

BRYN MAWR GRANT FUNDS

Awards are made by the College to full-time students based on need from institutional funds. Awards are given in amounts determined to meet the grant portion of the student’s eligibility after considering Federal Pell Grants and state grants. Bryn Mawr Grants are awarded for a maximum of eight terms. (See “Renewing Financial Aid Awards.”) Only students who apply for institutional aid at the time of admission are considered for institutional grant assistance during any of their subsequent years of enrollment.

BRYN MAWR MERIT SCHOLARSHIP

Students admitted to Bryn Mawr College as first-time undergraduate students are automatically considered for the Bryn Mawr Merit Scholarship; no additional application is required. Applicants are evaluated using Bryn Mawr’s holistic admission review process, which takes numerous factors into consideration including, but not limited to, academic coursework and performance, involvement in school and community, leadership qualities, letters of recommendation, quality and content of writing, and potential to contribute in meaningful ways to the Bryn Mawr community.

Students may receive a Bryn Mawr Merit Scholarship even with no demonstrated financial need. Merit scholarships may be awarded to U.S. citizens and permanent residents. Awards range from $12,000 to $30,000 per year. Scholarships are non-negotiable and are only awarded at the time of admission. Merit scholarships are awarded for a maximum of eight semesters and renewable provided the student is enrolled full-time at Bryn Mawr. Bryn Mawr Merit Scholarship, in conjunction with other sources of financial aid and entitlements, cannot exceed the cost of attendance.

BRYN MAWR POSSE SCHOLARSHIPS

Bryn Mawr College partners with the Posse Foundation to award a limited number of full tuition scholarships to selected incoming students from the Boston, MA and Houston, TX areas regardless of need. To apply for a Posse Scholarship, a student must be from the Boston, MA or Houston, TX areas and go through the Posse Foundation’s selection process. The Posse Foundation identifies, recruits and trains youth leaders from urban public high schools to form multi-cultural Posses. Responsibility for final selection is shared by Bryn Mawr College and the Posse Foundation. Posse Scholarships are awarded for a maximum of eight terms. To apply for need-based aid, Posse Scholars must submit a complete financial aid application.

FEDERAL PELL GRANTS

Pell Grants are federal need-based grants awarded to undergraduate students who have not earned a bachelor’s or a professional degree. If the amount of Pell Grant is not known or is estimated by the Office of Financial Aid at the time of the initial award announcement, the amount of the Bryn Mawr grant will subsequently change so the total grant aid will remain the same.

Lifetime Pell Grant Limit: The amount of Pell Grant funds a student may receive over their lifetime is limited by federal law to be the equivalent of six years of Pell Grant funding. Since the maximum amount of Pell Grant funding a student can receive each year is equal to 100%, the six-year equivalent is 600%. More information about Pell Grant lifetime can be found at http://studentaid.ed.gov/types/grants-scholarships/pell/calculate-eligibility.

FEDERAL IRAQ AND AFGHANISTAN SERVICE GRANT

If a student is not eligible for a Pell Grant but that student’s parent or guardian was a member of the U.S. armed forces and died as a result of service performed in Iraq or Afghanistan after September 11, 2001, the student may be eligible for this grant. To receive the grant, the student must be under 24 years old or enrolled in college, at least part-time, at the time of the parent’s or guardian’s death. The amount of the grant will be equal to the maximum Pell Grant for the award year, although the amount will not exceed the cost of attendance for the year.

FEDERAL SUPPLEMENTAL EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY GRANTS (FSEOG)
The College awards FSEOG from federal funds allocated to Bryn Mawr to undergraduates with exceptional financial need who have not earned a bachelor’s or professional degree. In compliance with federal regulations, priority is given to students who qualify for Pell Grants.

STATE GRANTS
Students who are residents of Connecticut, Delaware, the District of Columbia, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, or West Virginia are required to apply on time to their state grant program. State grants are awarded to the student by the state scholarship office of the state in which the student resides. The Office of Financial Aid complies with state regulatory requirements. If the state funds have not been received at the time of Bryn Mawr’s award announcement, the Bryn Mawr Grant, and/or FSEOG will later be reduced by the amount of the state grant. If a student fails to meet the state grant deadline, the College will not replace forfeited state grant funds with Bryn Mawr Grant.

A complete listing of state grant agencies can be found at http://wdcrrobcolp01.ed.gov/Programs/ EROD/org_list.cfm?category_ID=SHE.

FEDERAL WORK STUDY
The College awards Federal Work Study on the basis of need from federal funds allocated to Bryn Mawr. Eligible students may earn up to a specified amount through part-time employment. Wages are paid, in part, by the federal subsidy. The median award is $2,000. Maximum earning potential is contingent on the availability of jobs and scheduling. Please refer to the “Student Employment” section of the handbook.

FEDERAL PERKINS LOANS
The College may award Perkins loans to students who qualify based on Federal Department of Education policy, College policy, and demonstrated need from federal funds allocated to Bryn Mawr. The Federal Perkins Loan Program Act of 2015 extended the Perkins Loan Program through September 30, 2017 under specific guidance. New undergraduate borrowers must demonstrate need after being awarded Direct Subsidized and Unsubsidized Loans. Previous borrowers must demonstrate need after all Direct Subsidized Loan has been awarded. Schools cannot make loans after September 30, 2017.

Awards may range from $500 to $5,500 per year and are based on financial eligibility. Upon receipt of the award, the student must log onto BIONIC to accept, reduce or decline the Federal Perkins Loan. The student must complete a Perkins Loan Master Promissory Note (MPN) and a Perkins Loan Entrance Interview before these funds can be credited to the student’s account. The MPN will be sent to the student during the summer and must be signed and returned to the Office of Student Accounts. The student completes the Perkins Loan Entrance Interview requirement by visiting https://www.brynmawr.edu/studentaccounts/perkins-loan-information and clicking on Perkins Loan Entrance Interview.

Loan repayment is deferred while the student is enrolled at least half-time in any approved postsecondary school. Students begin repayment nine months after graduation, withdrawal from the College, or dropping below half-time status. The interest rate is 5% per year. No interest accrues until the repayment schedule begins. Students must complete a Perkins Loan Exit Interview before graduating or dropping to less than half-time enrollment. The student completes the Perkins Loan Exit Interview requirement by visiting https://www.brynmawr.edu/studentaccounts/perkins-loan-information and clicking on Perkins Loan Exit Interview.

FEDERAL DIRECT LOANS FOR STUDENTS

The Federal Direct Loan Program enables students who are enrolled at least half-time (two units) to borrow directly from the federal government. Loans made through this program include the Direct Subsidized and the Direct Unsubsidized Loans.

Direct Subsidized Loans: The student must demonstrate federal financial need. The U.S. Department of Education will pay (subsidize) the interest that accrues during certain periods.

Direct Unsubsidized Loans: Financial need is not a requirement. The student is responsible for paying the interest that accrues.

Eligibility for the Subsidized Loan is determined by the information provided on the FAFSA. The College administers all necessary paperwork for the government so the student does not have to submit a separate loan application.

Interest Rate: Interest rates are determined each June for new loans being made for the upcoming award year, which runs from July 1 to the following June 30. Each loan has a fixed interest rate for the life of the loan. The interest rate was fixed at 3.76% for undergraduate Federal Direct Loans first disbursed on or after July 1, 2016. On July 1, borrowers may view interest rates for the 2017-18 academic year at www.studentaid.ed.gov/sa/types/loans/interest-rates.

Fees: A loan origination fee of 1.069% will be deducted from the gross amount on all Federal Direct Loans first disbursed between December 1, 2016, and September 30, 2017. For loans disbursed on or after October 1, 2017, the loan fee may be different depending on federal budget cuts put into place by the Budget Control Act of 2011. The Department of Education will notify borrowers of fee changes and will provide additional information.

Time Limitation on Direct Subsidized Loan Eligibility: First-time borrowers or students without prior loan balances who received a loan on or after July 1, 2013 are subject to a limit on the maximum period of time (measured in academic years) they can receive a Direct Subsidized Loan. Students cannot receive more than 150% of their “maximum eligibility period.” The maximum eligibility period is based on the published length of the student’s current program.

For example, for a four-year bachelor’s degree program, the maximum period for which a student can receive Direct Subsidized Loans is six years (150% of 4 years = 6 years).

To Accept Your Loan: Upon receipt of the final award letter or email notification, the student must log onto BIONIC to accept, reduce or decline the Federal Direct Loan.

Entrance Counseling: All first-time Federal Direct Loan borrowers at Bryn Mawr must complete loan entrance counseling to review their rights and responsibilities. The student may satisfy this obligation online at www.studentloans.gov. Entrance loan counseling is also available by appointment in the Office of Financial Aid.

Master Promissory Note: All first-time Federal Direct Loan borrowers must sign a Master Promissory Note (MPN). The MPN is a multi-year binding legal document good for 10 years from the date the first loan is disbursed. Borrowers may complete an electronic MPN (eMPN) at www.studentloans.gov. The eMPN speeds up the processing of the loan.

Loan Disbursement: The Department of Education will electronically transmit the loan funds to Bryn Mawr College each semester. The loan is credited to the student’s account once the student completes a loan entrance interview and signs a master promissory note (MPN). The Office of Student Accounts will notify the student when the funds have been credited. Loan funds are scheduled to be disbursed on the first day of classes. When the student borrows for the entire year, one-half of the loan proceeds will be credited to the student’s account in the fall and the remaining half in the spring. If the student borrows for only one semester, the loan funds will be credited in a single installment during the term.

Students should take into consideration that a loan origination fee will be deducted from the loan disbursement each semester. This means that the net amount of loan funds credited to the student’s account will differ from the gross amount listed on the student’s award letter.

Exit Counseling: All borrowers must complete exit counseling prior to graduating or within 45 days of dropping enrollment below half-time. The student may satisfy this obligation online at www.studentloans.gov. Exit loan counseling is also available by appointment in the Office of Financial Aid.

Repayment: Loan repayment begins six months after the student ceases to be enrolled on at least a half-time basis. The repayment term ranges from 10 to 25 years.
depending on the amount borrowed and the repayment plan chosen. The minimum monthly payment is $50. If the student borrows a smaller amount, the student will have shorter repayment terms. If the student borrows a larger amount, the student may wish to consolidate the loan to extend the repayment term. There are additional requirements for each repayment plan. You can read more about each of the plans at www.studentaid.gov/repay.

Deferment/Discharge/Cancellation: Under certain conditions, federal regulations allow students to defer loan repayment. The most common deferments are for enrollment on at least a half-time basis, unemployment, and economic hardship. An active duty military deferment is available for loans first disbursed on or after July 1, 2001. Complete information about loan deferments will be provided during the entrance and exit interview processes. Additional information can be found online at www.studentaid.gov/repay.

NSLDS: The National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) is the U.S. Department of Education’s central database for student financial aid records. The secure NSLDS web site, www.nslds.ed.gov, allows the student to track and manage federal grants and student loans from when they are approved until paid in full. Using the Federal Student Aid (FSA) ID (the one used when completing the FAFSA), the student can access this website 24 hours a day. Please note that loan information at NSLDS is accessible to authorized users at schools and to lender and guaranty agencies.

Federal Direct PLUS is a non-need based, low-interest federally subsidized loan program designed to help parents provide funds for the parental contribution.

Bryn Mawr College administers the PLUS Loan application process and the funds are provided by the U.S. Department of Education. A PLUS loan applicant must pass a credit check and should not have an adverse credit history.

Interest Rate: Interest rates are determined each June for new loans being made for the upcoming award year, which runs from July 1 to the following June 30. Each loan has a fixed interest rate for the life of the loan. For PLUS Loans borrowed between July 1, 2016, and June 30, 2017, the interest rate was fixed at 6.31% . On July 1, borrowers may view interest rates for the 2017-18 academic year at www.studentaid.ed.gov.

Other Fees: A loan origination fee of 4.276% will be deducted from the gross amount on all Federal Direct PLUS Loans first disbursed December 1, 2016, through September 30, 2017. For loans first disbursed on or after October 1, 2017, the loan fee may be different depending upon the federal budget cuts put into place by the Budget Control Act of 2011. The Department of Education will notify borrowers of fee changes and will provide additional information.

Borrowing Limits: The yearly amount is limited to the difference between the student’s cost of attendance minus any other financial aid the dependent student receives, including Federal Direct Loan assistance. There are no aggregate PLUS loan limits.

PLUS Loan Application Instructions: The parent borrower must sign on to www.studentloans.gov with a Federal Student Aid ID or “FSA ID.” A borrower without an FSA ID can get more information and create one at http://fsaid.ed.gov.

The four steps on the Direct PLUS Loan Request are:

1. Personal Information
2. Student & Loan Information
3. Review Request
4. Credit Check & Submit

Borrowers must also provide the following information to the school:

Award Amount Information—Borrowers can request a specific amount they wish to borrow, or can request that Bryn Mawr determine the maximum amount they are eligible to receive by selecting the Maximum Amount Indicator.

GENERAL LOAN REPAYMENT

Comprehensive repayment plans and schedules, along with an interactive calculator, are available at www.studentaid.ed.gov.

The federal government provides various ways for you to pay back federal loans based on income rather than amount borrowed. The Office of Financial Aid recommends that students work with their loan servicer when choosing a repayment plan.

Public Service Loan Forgiveness programs were created to encourage students to enter and continue work, full-time, in public service jobs. Remaining balances on federal Direct Program Loans are forgiven after 120 qualifying monthly payments are made, beginning after October 2007. Full-time employment by a public service organization is required at time of repayment. Detailed information, along with questions and answers about the program, is available at www.studentaid.ed.gov.
Credit Balance Option—Borrowers can indicate whether they want any remaining credit balance to be paid to the parent borrower or to the student.

Interest is charged on PLUS Loan during all periods, beginning on the date of the first loan disbursement. A PLUS borrower may pay the interest as it accrues during a deferment, or allow it to accrue and be capitalized at the end of the deferment period.

Direct PLUS Master Promissory Note: The PLUS Master Promissory Note (MPN) is a multi-year promissory note which a parent needs to sign only once, at the time he/she first borrows for that dependent. Parents may complete an electronic MPN (eMPN) at www.studentloans.gov.

Disbursement: When the parent borrows for the academic year, loan proceeds are disbursed in two equal installments, one per semester. If the parent borrows for only one semester, the loan funds are credited in a single installment during the term for which the loan was borrowed. Parents should take into consideration that a loan origination fee of 4.276% will be deducted from the loan disbursement each semester. This means that the net amount of PLUS loan funds credited to the student’s account will differ from the gross amount borrowed.

Repayment: Repayment begins on the date of the last disbursement. Parent PLUS loan borrowers whose funds were first disbursed on or after July 1, 2016, have the option of delaying their repayment on the PLUS loan either 60 days after the loan is fully disbursed or six months after the dependent student is not enrolled at least half-time. During this time, interest may be paid by the parent or capitalized.

PRIVATE ALTERNATIVE LOAN

Private loans are non-federal education loans offered by a lender such as a bank or credit union. Students should consider applying for a private loan only after exhausting all other possible sources of funds. Fewer than 3% of Bryn Mawr degree-seeking undergraduates borrowed a private loan during the 2016-17 school year. Private loans often have variable interest rates, require a credit check, and may have less attractive repayment plans than federal loans. Many lenders require a credit-worthy co-signer. In general, students may borrow up to the cost of education minus all other financial aid received. Students who choose to borrow a private loan must select a lender of their choice and complete the lender’s application process. A list of private lenders used by Bryn Mawr students over the past three years is posted on our website: www.brynmawr.edu/financial-aid/current-undergraduate-students/types-aid.

FSA OMBUDSMAN

The Federal Student Aid Ombudsman was created by the Department of Education to help resolve disputes and solve other problems with federal student loans. The Ombudsman’s Service Line is 1-877-557-2575. Fax number: 1-202-275-0549.

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT

Students awarded need-based Federal Work Study or Campus Employment may work on campus to earn money to cover the costs of books, supplies, and personal expenses. Students’ maximum earning potential is contingent on availability of jobs and scheduling. Earnings are paid directly to students on a bi-weekly basis and are not credited to student billing accounts. Current College policy requires that all first year students work with the dining services department. First year students will receive information about this opportunity during the summer in a mailing from the Dean’s Office.

The Student Employment Office serves as a resource for students who need assistance finding jobs or with employment-related issues on campus. Contact information for the Student Employment Office can be found at https://brynmawr.studentemployment.ngwebsolutions.com.

Students who have not been previously employed at the College or who have had not worked at the College for more than two years must complete an I-9 form before they can be hired. Students will be required to show the following documentation for the I-9:

- One document that establishes both identity and employment authorization such as a U.S. Passport, Permanent Resident Card, Alien Registration Card, foreign passport with an I-551 stamp.

OR

- One document that establishes identity such as a driver’s license, state ID card, voter’s registration card, military dependent’s ID card. AND

- One document that establishes employment authorization such as: Social Security Card, birth certificate, U.S. Citizen Card, employment

For a complete list of acceptable I-9 documents please contact the Human Resources Office at 610-526-5261 or the Student Employment Office at 610-526-7941.

Certified copies of birth certificates are acceptable. All other documents must be original.

Community Service Jobs: Bryn Mawr’s Civic Engagement employs Federal Work Study eligible students during the academic year through a variety of community service related jobs. Students are employed as reading and mathematics tutors through school and community-based tutoring programs and students are hired as student coordinators to help run the Civic Engagement’s co-curricular volunteer programs. Civic Engagement also coordinates the Community Based Work Study program which matches work study eligible students with local community partner organizations as paid employees, working eight to ten hours per week. Civic Engagement’s work study employment programs provide students with opportunities to make meaningful contributions to local organizations and communities while also learning about community issues and developing professional skills. Participation is limited to students enrolled in their second, third, and fourth years at Bryn Mawr College. Visit the Civic Engagement website to learn more: www.brynmawr.edu/ceo.

Summer Community Service: Federal Work Study eligible students are invited to locate a community service agency in their hometown and work there during the summer break. Both the agency and the job description must be approved by the Office of Financial Aid and the agency must agree to pay 25% of the student’s hourly wage. An email will be sent to eligible students regarding this program and its requirements before spring break. For information regarding summer community service, contact the Office of Financial Aid.

Fellowships: Bryn Mawr students may apply for a number of prestigious fellowships. These fellowships may provide funding for the last years of undergraduate education, or graduate education, both in the US and abroad. Please see the website for more information about fellowships at https://www.brynmawr.edu/fellowships.

Internships: Bryn Mawr students may also participate in internship opportunities. Civic Engagement partners with several organizations to offer paid summer internships. First-years, sophomores, and juniors are eligible to apply. Please see the website for more information about internships at https://www.brynmawr.edu/summerfunding/lilac-internship-partners.

The Yellow Ribbon Program: The Yellow Ribbon GI Education Enhancement Program is a provision of the Post-9/11 Veterans Educational Assistance Act of 2008. It is a supplement to the “Post GI Bill Benefit in Pennsylvania” also known as Chapter #33 and expands veterans’ higher-education benefits, paying up to $17,500 for participating students. Students applying to Bryn Mawr may also be eligible for additional aid beyond the VA benefit.

All VA benefits, including housing allowances and book stipends sent directly to the student, will be considered resources before Bryn Mawr Grant eligibility is calculated. Eligible students admitted to degree programs in Bryn Mawr’s undergraduate college will be able to take advantage of this benefit pending college approval for the 2017-18 school year. For more information log onto http://www.benefits.va.gov/GIBILL/yellow_ribbon/yrp_list_2016.asp.

REQUIREMENTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Satisfactory Academic Progress

Failure to Maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress for Financial Aid Recipients

When a student fails to meet one or more of the satisfactory academic progress standards, the Committee on Academic Standing will place the student on academic warning. Financial aid recipients on academic warning are eligible to receive financial aid for one term with a financial aid warning status.

If after the financial aid warning period, the Committee on Academic Standing does not deem the student to be maintaining satisfactory academic progress, the student will become ineligible to receive financial assistance.

Satisfactory Academic Progress Appeals

A student who fails to meet the satisfactory academic progress standards for two consecutive semesters may appeal to the Committee on Academic Standing for permission to continue for an additional semester of academic probation and for a semester of financial aid probation. Appeals must be submitted directly to the Committee on Academic Standing. Examples of extenuating circumstances which may cause a student to appeal are prolonged illness under a doctor’s care, illness or accidents requiring hospitalization, or death of an immediate relative.

If the Academic Standing Committee approves the appeal, the student is eligible for a financial aid probation semester. While on financial aid probation, students will be required to meet regularly with their dean and the student’s instructors may be asked to submit mid-semester reports regarding academic work. At the end of the financial aid probation period, the Committee on Academic Standing will determine if the student has met specified standards and/or regained good academic standing.

REINSTATEMENT

A student who has been denied financial aid because of failure to make satisfactory academic progress can have eligibility reinstated once the student is in good academic standing. A student who has not regained academic standing, but who has satisfied the specific terms of an academic plan set forth by the Academic Standing Committee, may appeal to continue on an additional semester of financial aid probation.

STUDENT RIGHTS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Students have the right to know:
1. The Office of Financial Aid’s location, hours, and counseling procedures.
2. The financial aid programs available at Bryn Mawr College.
3. The application procedures and deadlines.
4. The criteria for selecting financial aid recipients.
5. The criteria for determining need.
6. The method for determining the amounts and types of aid awarded.
7. The costs that were considered in determining eligibility for aid.
8. The method and timing of financial aid payments.
9. The basis for determining satisfactory academic progress to continue to receive financial aid and what happens when progress is not made.
10. The portion of aid that must be repaid, the portion that is grant, and the portion that must be earned through employment.
11. If offered a Federal Work Study award, the nature of the job, the required number of work hours, job duties, the pay, and the method and timing of payments.

Financial aid applications are confidential. Information concerning financial aid applicants will be released only to agencies that require the information for scholarship consideration and only when authorized by the student and family.

Students are responsible for:
1. Completing all application forms accurately and submitting them on time to the appropriate location.
2. Providing all documentation, verification, corrections and/or other scholarship information requested by the Office of Financial Aid or other scholarship agencies.
3. Reporting any changes in enrollment and housing to the Office of Financial Aid.
4. Reading and understanding all forms that are distributed and retaining student copies.
5. Performing the work that is agreed upon in accepting a work study position.
6. Reporting name and address changes directly to the Registrar and lenders of all education loans that have been received.
7. When filing U.S. taxes, include as taxable income all grant aid that exceeds the cost of tuition, fees, books and supplies.

CONSUMER INFORMATION

The Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA) of 2008, which reauthorized the Higher Education Act of 1965, requires Bryn Mawr College to make available to enrolled students a number of consumer notices and disclosures. These disclosures provide information about some of the College’s policies and practices, including academics, tuition and costs, financial aid, student life, campus safety, student success, and student outcomes. The student can find more information regarding Bryn Mawr College consumer information at https://www.brynmawr.edu/consumer-information.
WORKSHEET: HOW TO DETERMINE THE FAMILY’S SHARE OF THE COLLEGE BILL

Students are responsible for payment of the tuition account and related expenses during each semester of enrollment at Bryn Mawr College.

Some sources of financial aid listed on the award letter will not show as credits to the student account until after classes start each semester. (See “How Financial Aid Funds are Credited” on page 18.)

Federal work-study funds are paid directly to the student on a bi-weekly basis as wages. Work-study funds are not credited to the student’s bill.
BILLING, PAYMENT, AND STUDENT ACCOUNT RELATED INFORMATION

SELF SERVICE FOR STUDENT ACCOUNTS
Students will receive their billing statements and may view their student account via the College’s electronic billing and payment processor, Nelnet Business Solutions (NBS). Students can authorize access to family and others who may want to view and pay the bills online using Student Account Self Service on BIONIC.

In compliance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, (FERPA), commonly called the Buckley Amendment, all Bryn Mawr College billings and student accounts are in the student’s name. All students acknowledge their responsibility for the cost of tuition and fees through registration.

E-BILLING INFORMATION AND PAYMENT DUE DATES
The College bills by semester via an electronic “e-bill.” All bills are in the student’s name. An email notification is sent to the student’s Bryn Mawr email address when an e-bill is ready to access online. Students retrieve the e-bill on the Bryn Mawr College website by logging into BIONIC. Students may forward the e-bill or set up a parent or other third party as an “authorized” payer to view or receive the e-bill. The College does not send paper bills, but students may print their e-bill. The College can only send e-bills to the student’s address due to FERPA regulations.

- E-bills for the Fall semester are available the first week of July and payment is due August 1, 2017.
- E-bills for the Spring semester are available the first week of December and payment is due January 2, 2018.

Monthly bills are sent when student accounts have outstanding balances. Student accounts are expected to be paid in full before students participate in registration, pre-registration, room draw, graduation, and access official transcripts.

BILL PAYMENT OPTIONS

Monthly Payment Plan
- Bryn Mawr College contracts with Nelnet Business Solutions (NBS) to offer an interest-free monthly payment plan. This option allows monthly payments for a $25 per semester enrollment fee.
- To calculate a semester’s payment plan amount, use the Total Amount Due figure on the Worksheet on the opposite page. To determine monthly payments and enroll in the NBS payment plan, access: https://www.brynmawr.edu/studentaccounts/enroll-monthly-payment-plan-automatic-payment.

Prepaid Plan
Two prepaid tuition plans are offered to those students who are not receiving financial aid and those students who have only a Bryn Mawr Merit Scholarship. These plans offer no tuition increases for four years. Payment for the current year and all future years must be paid in full by August 1, 2017. The pre-paid plans can be utilized for Tuition only, or for Tuition, Fees, and Room and Board. This does not pertain to the Student Government Fee.

A credit for all four years’ tuition, or tuition, fees, room and board will be placed on the account. Each semester’s bill will reflect only that semester’s credit.

PAYMENT
- Payment by check should be in U.S. dollars, drawn on a U.S. bank, payable to Bryn Mawr College. Do not post-date checks; the College is unable to hold checks. Be sure to include the student’s College ID number on the check. Make check payable to and mail to:

  Bryn Mawr College
  Student Accounts-Cartref Building 2nd Floor
  101 North Merion Avenue
  Bryn Mawr, PA 19010-2899

- Electronic checks (e-checks) and credit cards may be used to pay student account balances through the online payment processor, Nelnet Business Solution’s, QuikPay, which can be accessed using the link at: https://www.brynmawr.edu/studentaccounts/making-payments.
- MasterCard, Discover, and American Express cards are accepted for payment. A 2.75% fee will apply. The fee is not charged by Bryn Mawr College, and will be reflected as a separate transaction on the credit card statement. The 2.75% fee will never be reflected on a student’s Bryn Mawr College student account. Visa is currently not accepted.

- Students are able to establish Authorized Payer(s) to pay the bill online. Visit the Student Account Services website at https://www.brynmawr.edu/studentaccounts/making-payments/make-payment-check-or-credit-card/how-authorize-payers.

- Payments from outside the United States should be processed via the “Flywire by peerTransfer” website: brynmawr.peertransfer.com.

- To wire funds, call (610) 526-5500 for instructions.

BANKING INFORMATION

- An ATM machine, funded by TD Bank, is located on campus in the Campus Center for student use.

- Student Banking: Bryn Mawr College is located within walking distance to local and national banks to accommodate student banking needs.

UNDERSTANDING THE TUITION BILL (BILLING STATEMENT)

How Financial Aid Funds are Credited: Students must complete the financial aid application process before funds can be credited to their student account. Students selected for federal verification must complete verification. Estimated awards are not finalized and cannot be credited. Financial Aid not yet disbursed may result in an outstanding balance on the student’s account. Until student accounts are paid in full, participation in registration, pre-registration, room draw, graduation, and processing of transcripts are withheld.

Wages earned through Federal Work Study or Campus Employment are paid directly to the student on a bi-weekly basis and are not applied toward the bill. Grant and loan funds are disbursed to the student’s account one-half in the fall and one-half in the spring. The earliest that federal grant and loan funds can be disbursed is ten days before the start of classes each term. At Bryn Mawr College, federal loans and grants are disbursed on the first day of classes if the student has accepted the loan online, signed the loan promissory note and completed entrance counseling.

How Financial Aid Appears on the Bill: Students must accept, reduce, or decline their loans online through BIONIC Self Service using their ID and password.

Grants and Scholarships: Bryn Mawr Grants and Scholarships will be credited prior to billing. State grants and outside scholarships are credited when the College has received the funds from the state agency or private donor. Federal Pell Grants are credited once the College receives final authorization from the Department of Education.

Federal Perkins Loan: First time borrowers at Bryn Mawr must sign a Perkins Master Promissory Note (MPN) and complete a Perkins Loan Entrance Interview before funds can be credited.

Federal Direct Loan: First time borrowers must sign a Federal Direct Master Promissory Note (MPN) and complete a Federal Direct Loan Entrance Interview before funds can be credited. A federal loan fee is subtracted from the proceeds. Loan fees are federally regulated and subject to change.

Federal Direct PLUS Loan: Parents must sign a Federal Direct Master Promissory Note (MPN) before funds can be credited. A Federal Origination Fee is subtracted from the proceeds. Loan fees are federally regulated and subject to change.

Federal Work Study and Campus Employment: Wages earned are paid directly to the student on a bi-weekly basis and are not applied toward the bill.

HOW PAYMENTS APPEAR ON THE BILL

Payment Plans: If enrolled in the Nelnet Business Solutions (NBS) monthly payment plan, each payment is credited to the account as payments are received from NBS. Payment plans are for each semester only.

Payments made online are posted in real time: Payments made in person will normally be posted within 24 hours.

Payments received via U.S. mail will normally be posted within 24 hours.

Prepaid Plans: One semester’s portion of the total Prepaid Plan will be credited to the student’s account each semester.
REFUNDS FOR ENROLLED STUDENTS AND TITLE IV RECIPIENTS

The student’s account becomes eligible for a refund when the balance is exceeded by the credits posted to it. Refunds are processed once a week. Refunds resulting from an overage from Title IV aid funds are automatically processed by Student Accounts as quickly as possible to be distributed by the Accounts Payable Office on the nearest upcoming Monday per their processing calendar. Refunds resulting from an overage from Alternative Loan funds or other sources must be requested in writing, preferably on the Refund Request Form found at www.brynmawr.edu/studentaccounts/refunds-student-accounts-andor-onecard-option.pdf. If a student prefers to have their available refund amount rolled over to the next semester, a written request is required.

Bryn Mawr College provides a permission feature through BIONIC Self-Service to expedite the processing of federal funds relating to student accounts. Granting “Title IV Permission” will authorize federal funds to pay for miscellaneous charges, (health center fees, parking fines, etc.) and therefore, accelerate the payment of bills and any applicable refund. Go to BIONIC and under the Finances section, click the “...other financial” field and choose View Student Permissions. Then click the double arrows (>>) to access permissions.

Refunds can be directly deposited into a bank account.

The Direct Deposit Form can be downloaded from www.brynmawr.edu/studentaccounts/refunds-student-accounts-andor-onecard-option, completed and sent to the Controller’s Office.

WITHDRAWAL AND REFUND POLICIES

WHEN A STUDENT WITHDRAWS: TREATMENT OF COLLEGE CHARGES

Students will be refunded 100% of their previously paid tuition, room and board, and College fees if the Registrar receives written notice that the student withdrew from the College or began a leave of absence before the first day of classes.

For students withdrawing from the College or embarking on a medical or psychological leave of absence on or after the first day of classes, refunds of tuition and room and board occur according to a pro-rata schedule up to 60% attendance. No refunds are processed for withdrawals after 60% of the semester. Fall and spring breaks are not included in the calculation of refund weeks. Note that Student Government Association dues and the health insurance portion of the College Fee are non-refundable.

The date the student began the withdrawal process by contacting the Dean’s Office verbally, or in writing, is considered the date of withdrawal for College refunds and for the return of Title IV funds. When a student continues to attend classes or other academically related activity after beginning the withdrawal process, the College may choose to use the student’s last date of documented attendance at an academically related activity as the date of withdrawal. For a student who leaves the College without notifying the College of intent to withdraw, the College normally uses the student’s last date of documented attendance at an academically related activity as the date of withdrawal. If that date cannot be ascertained, the College will consider the midpoint of the enrollment period to be the date the student withdrew.

WHEN A STUDENT WITHDRAWS: TREATMENT OF TITLE IV FEDERAL AID

This policy applies to all students receiving Federal Pell Grants, Federal Direct Loans, Federal PLUS Loans, Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (FSEOG), Federal Perkins Loans, Federal Iraq Afghanistan Service Grants, and in some cases, state grants.

When a recipient of Title IV Federal grant or loan assistance withdraws or takes a leave of absence from the College during the semester, the College must determine per a federal formula, the amount of federal aid that the student may retain as of the withdrawal date. Any federal aid that the student is eligible to receive, but which has not been disbursed, will be offered to the student as a post-withdrawal disbursement. Any federal aid the student is not eligible to receive according to the federal refund policy will be returned to the federal government.

The student is entitled to retain federal aid based on the percentage of the semester completed. As prescribed by federal formula, the College calculates the percentage by dividing the total number of calendar days in the semester into the number of calendar days completed as of the withdrawal date. Fall and spring breaks are excluded as periods of nonattendance in the enrollment period. Once the student has completed more than 60% of the semester, the student has earned all of the Title IV assistance scheduled for that period.

The amount of Title IV assistance not earned is calculated by determining the percentage of assistance earned and applying it to the total amount of grant and loan assistance that was disbursed. The amount the school must return is the lesser of:

- the unearned amount of Title IV assistance or
- the institutional charges incurred for the period of enrollment multiplied by the unearned percentage.

The order of return of Title IV funds is:

- Unsubsidized Federal Loans
- Subsidized Federal Loans
- Federal Perkins Loans
- Federal PLUS Loans
- Federal Pell Grants
- Federal Iraq Afghanistan Service Grants
- Federal Supplemental Education Opportunity Grants (FSEOG)
- Other Title IV assistance

DEADLINES FOR RETURNING TITLE IV FUNDS

The amount of the refund allocated to the Federal Direct Loan, Federal PLUS Program, Federal Pell Grant, Federal SEOG, and Federal Perkins will be returned by the College to the appropriate federal program accounts within 45 days of the date the student officially withdrew or was expelled, or within 45 days of the date the College determined that the student had unofficially withdrawn.

The amount of the refund, if any, allocated to the student will be paid within 45 days of the student’s withdrawal date or, if the student withdrew unofficially, the date that the Dean’s Office determined that the student withdrew.
