HOW TO ESTIMATE THE FAMILY’S SHARE OF THE COLLEGE BILL for Students Who Are Not U.S. Citizens or Permanent Residents

Students are responsible for payment of the tuition account and related expenses during all semesters of enrollment at Bryn Mawr College. Please use this worksheet as a tool to estimate each semester bill.

*International health insurance costs for 2016–2017 will be announced in May 2016.

Semester I: Fall 2016

Tuition .......................................................... $ 23,820
Room & Board .................................................. 7,685
College Fees .................................................. 400
SGA Fee .................................................. 175
*International Health Insurance .................. 1,699
Total Charges ................................................ $ 33,779

Refer to your award letter to:

Subtract Semester I grant disbursements .............................................. $ _____
Subtract Semester I outside grants or scholarships ................................ $ _____
Subtract expected loan proceeds .......................................................... $ _____
Remainder is amount due from family .................................................... $ _____

Semester II: Spring

Tuition .......................................................... $ 23,820
Room & Board .................................................. 7,685
College Fees .................................................. 400
SGA Fee .................................................. 175
International Health Insurance .................................................. 0
Total Charges .................................................. $ 32,080

Refer to your award letter to:

Subtract Semester II grant disbursements .............................................. $ _____
Subtract Semester II outside grants or scholarships ................................ $ _____
Subtract expected loan proceeds .......................................................... $ _____
Remainder is amount due from family .................................................... $ _____

Estimated total amount due for 2016–17 .............................................. $ _____

Campus Employment funds are paid directly to the student on a bi-weekly basis as wages. Campus Employment wages are not credited to the student’s bill.