Myths & Realities

“7 in 10 people” who reach age 65 will need long term care during their lives.

“Neither disability nor health insurance are designed to cover long term care expenses.”

“Medicare & Medicaid benefits are very limited and you may not qualify.”

“It can take years to accumulate an amount equal to the insurance coverage you could have today.”

“IT won’t happen to me.”

“My insurance will cover me.”

“The government will pay for the care I need.”

“I can pay for this out of my savings.”
Can You Pay For LTC Out Of Your Savings?

Example: A 45-year old invests $40.72 per month @ 5% to age 80

This monthly investment is equal to premiums for a 45-year old with a plan design of $3,000 Monthly Benefit, $108,000 Total Coverage and the None Benefit Increase Option. Additional options are available at different costs.

You may not be able to save enough to pay for the care you need.
More Myths & Realities

“I can rely on my family & friends.”

Caregiving is difficult and requires significant physical and emotional commitment

“You can customize a plan to fit your needs and your budget.”
Long Term Care Insurance May Be More Affordable Than You Think

Premiums vary by age

Coverage for a 45-year old under this program can be as low as $41.00 per month

This displays example premiums for an plan design of $3,000 Monthly Benefit, $108,000 Total Coverage and the None Benefit Increase Option at a variety of ages. Actual premiums depend on the age, plan design, rates and options selected.
How Do You Qualify For Benefits?

If you need help with at least 2 of the 6 Activities of Daily Living (ADLs), and help is expected to last at least 90 days.

A severe cognitive impairment that requires substantial supervision also makes you eligible to qualify.

LTCI can help reimburse the cost of LTC services that help people perform everyday activities

*Pre-Existing Conditions Limitation: We will not pay for Covered Expenses incurred for any care or confinement that is a result of a Pre-Existing Condition when the care or Confinement begins within twelve months following the initial Certificate Effective Date. A pre-existing condition means a condition (illness, disease, injury or symptom) for which medical advice or treatment was recommended by, or received from, a Health Care Professional within 90 days prior to the initial Certificate Effective Date.
Why Act Now?

If you postpone the decision to buy…

- Underwriting requirements may change.
- You may not qualify due to future health issues.
- Your premiums will be established at your older age & higher rate.
