Tri-Co Philly Program Student Information Sheet

The Tri-College Consortium is excited that the Tri-Co Philly Program is located in the Friends Center at 1501 Cherry Street in Philadelphia. When you enter the Friends Center, please greet the Friends Center staff member at the reception desk and let them know you are part of the Tri-Co Philly Program and headed to class.

Classroom space/3rd floor: The Tri-Co Philly Program classroom space is in the Martin Luther King (MLK) Room on the third floor. From the first floor, take the elevator to the third floor. Turn left off the elevator, walk to the end of the hallway. Turn right and walk down a second hall. The MLK Room is the door at the end of this hall.

Conference Room/1st floor, room 112 (for faculty office hours or study/gathering space): This space is in a limited-access section of the building. To visit the conference room for faculty office hours, please call (267) 519-5305 so that a faculty member can let you into the office space. If you don’t have a phone, the Friends Center staff member at the reception desk can call the conference room number. You can also call the Tri-Co Philly office number (267) 519-5303, so staff can let you into the space.

Tri-Co Philly Office/1st floor: The office is located on the first floor, also in a limited-access section of the building. Please call (267) 519-5303 for access.

Friends Center reception desk number: (215) 241-7100

Wi-Fi access: FC_Guest (no password)

Bathrooms: The bathrooms are located in the hallways near the elevators on all floors, with an accessible bathroom in the basement. These bathrooms are gendered male/female, but the Friends Center Restroom Policy is inclusive. The Friends Center Restroom Policy: All are welcome to use the restroom that best matches their identity, or that feels safest or most comfortable to them. Please help hold a safe space for everyone by not challenging or questioning others’ restroom choices.
