Important information about your retirement plan

The Bryn Mawr College Retirement Plan is moving to Transamerica Retirement Solutions on March 1, 2016. We recognize that change is not always easy, but we are working to make the transition as smooth as possible for you. Enclosed are the following notices:

Sarbanes-Oxley blackout notice: There will be a period of time when you will be unable to change your investments or request loans, withdrawals, and distributions. This is done to ensure the move to Transamerica is accurate and completed in a timely manner. Read this notice for more information.

Once the blackout period is over the week beginning March 20, 2016, you can access your new Transamerica account at brynmawr.trsretire.com.

Change in plan’s investment options notice: Some of your current investments will transfer to the new fund lineup at Transamerica and will be invested in the appropriate replacement funds. Read this notice for specific details on how your current investment options will transfer.

Fee disclosure notice: Like all retirement plans (including your current one), the investments and services offered through your plan have associated fees. Read this notice for more information.

Important information about your plan: Read this notice for more information on:

- Your default investment option. If you’ve never chosen investment options for your retirement plan account, you are invested in the plan’s default investment option. Read this notice to learn more about your default investment option and to find out how to elect different investments if you choose.

Privacy notice: Protecting your privacy is very important to us. Read this notice to learn more about what information we collect, how we use it, and how we keep it secure.

If you have questions, please call Transamerica at 1-888-676-5512. Representatives are available Monday through Friday, from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. ET. Please keep in mind, though, that Transamerica won’t be able to answer specific questions about your account until the blackout period is over.

Bryn Mawr College has selected Transamerica Retirement Solutions as your retirement plan provider, but there are no other affiliations between the two organizations.

Thank you,
