An Extraordinary People-to-People Experience aboard the Exclusively Chartered, Deluxe Small Sailing Ship

Le Ponant
January 7 to 16, 2018

Featuring Raymond Albert, MSW, JD, Ph.D., Professor and Director, Social Work and Law Certificate Program

Co-sponsored with Swarthmore College
Dear Bryn Mawr Alumnae/i and Friends,

Explore the breadth of Cuba in depth while interacting daily with Cubans from all walks of life who are quick to smile and talk openly with you about their day-to-day lives, culture, work and family traditions. Gain insight into the lasting influence of Spain; the glamorous landscape that once drew celebrities, gangsters, movie stars, artists and heads of state; the legacy of Fidel Castro; and the island’s emerging future. Our program will be led by Raymond Albert, MSW, JD, Ph.D., Professor and Director, Social Work and Law Certificate Program as well as a faculty member from Swarthmore College.

Delight in all that Cuba has to offer during this opportunity while experiencing seafaring in its most timeless form aboard the exclusively chartered, three-masted LE PONANT. Enjoy a refined yet casual lifestyle on board the deluxe small sailing ship featuring only 32 Staterooms—all ocean-view. LE PONANT is able to call in smaller ports that are inaccessible to larger ships. Enjoy the six-night cruise aboard LE PONANT followed by three nights in Havana’s comfortable MELIÁ HABANA HOTEL.

Explore Havana, with its vibrant spirit, iconic Malecón and beautifully restored Old City and fortifications, a UNESCO World Heritage site. See the historical center of Cienfuegos, built in a neoclassical style; explore the 16th-century colonial town of Trinidad; and visit Santiago de Cuba’s San Pedro de la Roca castle—all UNESCO World Heritage sites. Admire the misty Viñales Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage site replete with lush green tobacco fields, striking karst formations and the azure sea along the island’s stunning coastline, and visit the dynamic city of Santa Clara in Cuba’s heartland.

This program offers a full schedule of events, all of which involve people-to-people exchanges with Cubans who reflect this island’s unique rhythm of daily life and are eager to share their triumphs, challenges, experiences and cultural perspectives. This program will sell out quickly, so book now while space and Early Booking Savings are still available!

Warm regards,

Saskia Subramanian, ’88
President
Bryn Mawr College Alumnae Association

Raymond Albert received his AB and Ph.D. degrees from the University of Pennsylvania and his JD and MSW from the University of Connecticut. A Professor and Director of the Law and Social Policy (LSP) Program, he also served as Co-Dean from 2002–2008. He currently teaches LSP courses as well as courses in Multiculturalism and in community practice in the MSS program. Professor Albert’s books, Law and Social Work Practice: A Legal Systems Approach and Social Welfare: Narratives of Hard Times, and related articles on the legal dimensions of social services reflect his focus on sociolegal problems and on making sense of the social work and law connection. His current work focuses on an ethnographic examination of comity among racial groups (Black, White, and Latino) in a North Philadelphia neighborhood and on the legal regulation of race, in the American context and in comparison with Cuba. Chief among his community service has been his role as a longstanding Chairman of the Board of Directors for the Center for Responsible Funding, an innovative agency in Philadelphia that works to expand the funding base of organizations working for social and economic justice, as a co-founder and former President of the Board of Directors of the Good Shepherd Mediation Program in Philadelphia.

Cuba by Land and by Sea

Discovering the Island through its People

Welcome to the vivacious and remarkable island of Cuba, where history is rich, and exploration, discovery and tenacity run deep through a culture steeped in a blend of European, African and Asian influences. When Christopher Columbus first landed in Cuba in 1492, he was met by the indigenous Taíno peoples. Diego Velázquez de Cuéllar followed on Columbus’ second voyage and settled the tropical island. During the heyday of seafaring pirates, it became a smuggler’s haven, and even slavery during the early 1800s’ sugarcane industry boom left its own indelible mark. A revolutionary lightning rod for 20th-century politics, Cuba is lively and artistic, and its residents are among the most charming and welcoming people in the world. Meet them during this specially designed itinerary spanning the breadth of Cuba by land and by sea, and learn the secrets of their proud country through exclusive People-to-People Cultural Enrichments:

- Hear it from the Experts! An experienced, English-speaking Cuban host will accompany you throughout the program and discuss historical, cultural and contemporary Cuba. Interact with local experts including musicians, artists, farmers and academics.

- Meet lifelong residents of Cuba, who will share their perspectives on daily life.

- Savor authentic Cuban cuisine in family-operated paladares—privately owned, in-home restaurants.

- Learn more about preservation efforts in Old Havana, tobacco and organic farming in the verdant Viñales Valley and Cuba’s social welfare system in Santa Clara.

U.S./Holguín, Cuba/
Santiago de Cuba - Day 1

Depart the U.S. Upon arrival in Holguín, meet your host and begin your immersion into Cuban daily life. Transfer to Santiago de Cuba and embark LE PONANT. Enjoy the Captain’s Welcome Reception this evening.

People-to-People Cultural Enrichment:
- Visit the La Granja La Cieba near Holguín to meet a multigenerational family living and working at the farm and enjoy a light lunch.

Santiago de Cuba - Day 2 and Day 3

Cuba’s second largest city is perhaps the island’s most vibrant and culturally rich, with its lively music and attractive colonial architecture.

Castillo San Pedro de la Roca (El Morro), a UNESCO World Heritage site, was built in the 17th century to protect Santiago de Cuba Bay.

On the panoramic city tour of Santiago de Cuba, see Céspedes Park including historic City Hall, where Fidel Castro announced victory of the Cuban Revolution in 1959, and 15th-century Casa de Diego Velázquez, the oldest standing house in Cuba. Visit the expansive Cementerio Santa Ifigenia, the grandiose final resting place of former president Fidel Castro; Cuban national hero and important Latin American literature figure José Martí; Emilio Bacardí Moreau, known for his namesake rum; and Compay Segundo, guitarist of the Buena Vista Social Club. See the original Bacardí rum factory, first opened in 1868, and enjoy a traditional Cuban rum tasting.

Lively Brasil Street in Old Havana.
Visit the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Castillo San Pedro de la Roca (El Morro), a 17th-century fortress built to protect the important port of Santiago de Cuba Bay. In the lush Jardín de los Helechos, walk among over 350 species of ferns and 90 types of orchids. View imposing Revolution Square and historic San Juan Hill, a pivotal site during the Spanish-American War.

People-to-People Cultural Enrichments:
- Enjoy a colorful performance and tour at the Casa de la Trova, a vibrant, multifaceted institute that celebrates Afro-Cuban music, dance and culture.
- Tour the Basílica de Nuestra Señora del Cobre and visit La Virgen de la Caridad (Our Lady of Charity), the patron saint of Cuba, a brilliant shrine and Cuba's most sacred pilgrimage site which Pope Francis visited. Interact with Cuban pilgrims, and hear the captivating legend behind this revered shrine.
- Enjoy a performance by a female Cuban vocal quartet.

Cruising the Caribbean Sea - Day 4
Enjoy onboard discussions and time at leisure while cruising the Caribbean Sea.

Trinidad - Day 5
Developed from the wealth of the sugar industry in the 19th century, UNESCO World Heritage-designated Trinidad retains much of its colonial charm, with terra-cotta tiled roofs, pastel-hued houses, cobblestone streets and ornate tiled courtyards. Walk through 18th-century Plaza Mayor and visit the neoclassical Palacio Cantero, showcasing the history of Trinidad's residents.

Attend the Captain’s Farewell Reception on board this evening.

People-to-People Cultural Enrichments:
- Enjoy lively rumba and salsa performances at the Palenque de los Congos Reales, an outdoor music center devoted to traditional Cuban music and dancing.
- Visit the authentic Casa Chichi, a multigenerational pottery workshop established in 1892 that still uses clay sourced from Cuba's caves.

Cienfuegos for Santa Clara - Day 6
Known as the “Pearl of the South,” the UNESCO World Heritage-designated colonial harbor city of Cienfuegos was founded in 1819 by French settlers from Louisiana and Bordeaux while located in a Spanish territory, which has made for a fascinating blend of history and local culture today. This morning, visit the eclectic Teatro Tomás Terry, which hosted its first opera in 1890.

From Cienfuegos, travel to Santa Clara, the gateway to Cuba’s historically and agriculturally rich central region. Long associated with Ernesto “Che” Guevara, Santa Clara has been shaped by the most prestigious university outside Havana and features one of the country’s most spectacular grand colonial theaters. See the beautiful Teatro La Caridad, constructed in 1885 and one of the Eight Grand Theaters of the Cuban Colonial era, where famed musicians such as Enrico Caruso once performed. See the impressive Che Guevara Monument and walk through the comprehensive History Museum of the Revolution.

People-to-People Cultural Enrichments:
- Listen to a musical performance and meet the musicians of the Orquesta de Cámara.
- In a typical senior citizen community center, learn more about social welfare in Cuba and enjoy conversations with its residents and staff, who will introduce you to a longtime Cuban dance tradition, the danzón.
- Enjoy lunch in a paladar.

Cienfuegos/Havana - Day 7
Disembark this morning in Cienfuegos. Once a trading port for sugar cane, coffee and tobacco, the city was built in a neoclassical style from the wealth of these industries, and its original grid layout plan is an incredible example of early urban planning.

En route to Havana, visit Finca Vigía, the former home of Ernest Hemingway, affectionately called “Papa” by locals. Here, he wrote The Old Man and the Sea, based on a local fisherman, and For Whom the Bell Tolls. Accommodations for three nights are in the MELIÁ HABANA HOTEL.

People-to-People Cultural Enrichment:
- Enjoy lunch in a local paladar.

The Basílica de Nuestra Señora del Cobre, located just outside of Santiago de Cuba, is Cuba’s most sacred religious pilgrimage site.
Havana - Day 8
Cuba’s capital, the early-20th-century “Paris of the Caribbean,” remains arguably one of a kind, mixing impressive urban architecture and culture with an earthly, informal vibe and a lively arts and music scene, while retaining a distinctly vintage feel bolstered by the prevalence of 1950s American-made automobiles fondly called “Yank tanks” by the locals who painstakingly maintain them.

Cruise along in a private, antique American-made car on the Malecón in Old Havana to the Spanish colonial core of Habana Vieja, a UNESCO World Heritage site. This colorful neighborhood of winding cobblestone streets, pastel-hued houses and picturesque squares is filled with architectural beauty, including Plaza de Armas, the site where San Cristóbal de la Habana was founded in 1514.

Visit the downtown district of Vedado, a fascinating mix of old and new. See the University of Havana, the pre-revolutionary Capitolio reminiscent of the U.S. Capitol, the iconic Malecón (oceanfront promenade) and the legendary Hotel Nacional de Cuba. See Revolution Square, where Fidel Castro gave his famous hours-long May Day speeches.

People-to-People Cultural Enrichments:
◆ See an invigorating performance by dance and percussion group Habana Compás.
◆ Enjoy a walk through Old Havana with a focus on the preservation and evolution of art and architecture.
◆ Enjoy lunch and dinner each in local paladares.

Havana/Pinar del Río and Viñales Valley - Day 9
The striking Viñales Valley in Cuba’s westernmost province of Pinar del Río is designated a UNESCO World Heritage site. Known for its natural beauty, the valley is a much-photographed 270-square-mile plain surrounded by limestone karst hills called mogotes. The farmland here is among Cuba’s richest, and the ancient agricultural practices produce robust coffee and some of the world’s best tobacco, products central to Cuban history and identity.

People-to-People Cultural Enrichments:
◆ Meet a traditional tobacco farmer and cigar-roller in Vuelta Abajo, the country’s tobacco heartland. Spend time with his family as he welcomes you into his home to sample Cuban coffee.
◆ Tour an organic farm and enjoy an enriching discussion with the farmer and share a homestyle lunch with his family.
◆ In the historic town of Pinar del Río, visit a community art project where creativity is fostered in young people with Down syndrome.

Havana/U.S. - Day 10
This morning, transfer to the airport for your return flight to the U.S.

Miami Hotel Pre-Program Option
Arrive in Miami the day before your flight to Cuba. Enjoy overnight accommodations in the DOUBLETREE MIAMI AIRPORT HOTEL, a complimentary welcome drink, Cuba briefing and a convenient shuttle to the airport for your flight to Cuba.

Pre-Program Option is available at additional cost. Details will be provided with your reservation confirmation.

Farmers grow much of the world’s premium cigar tobacco in the fertile Viñales Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage site, in the agricultural province of Pinar del Río.

Musicians showcase their expressive talents to passersby on the streets of Trinidad.
DELUXE, EXCLUSIVELY CHARTERED, SMALL SAILING SHIP MY LE PONANT

The intimate, three-masted, deluxe LE PONANT offers an unforgettable and captivating sailing experience—seafaring in its most traditional form. When the 16,000 square feet of majestic sails are unfurled, the ship’s sleek lines and elegant beauty evoke the Golden Age of Sail. A harmonious alliance of nautical tradition and great style, this small ship is designed to cruise into the most secluded harbors where larger vessels cannot reach, and the refined yet casual lifestyle on board is manifest in the warm charm of each Stateroom and in the crew’s impeccable service.

Each of the 32 ocean-view Staterooms features a window or porthole, private bathroom with shower, one fixed queen bed or one queen bed convertible into two twin beds, individual climate control, satellite flat-screen television, complimentary Wi-Fi, direct-dial telephone, safe, minibar, dressing table, hair dryer and plush robes.

Meals feature superb international and Cuban specialties and each is served in a single, unassigned seating. Breakfast and lunch can be enjoyed alfresco in the indoor-outdoor Le Diamant Panoramic Restaurant, and dinner is served in the elegant, wood-paneled Karukéra Restaurant. Complimentary alcoholic and nonalcoholic beverages are available throughout the cruise.

The comfortable public areas showcase the ship’s tasteful sophistication favoring life in the open air. There are two lounges, a library and expansive open-air decks that extend the full length of the vessel, and there is an observation platform just above sea level for viewing marine life. Fully equipped Zodiacs are used to facilitate landings. There is a doctor on board the ship.

The ship’s guest-to-crew ratio of less than two to one allows the courteous, English-speaking crew to provide attentive, professional service, and they are always delighted to answer your questions about their sailing maneuvers. LE PONANT will certainly captivate anyone who steps aboard its gleaming timber decks.

MELIÁ HABANA HOTEL

An Extraordinary People-to-People Opportunity

Enjoy this unique and comprehensive exploration of Cuba by land and by sea, which provides an unprecedented people-to-people opportunity engaging Cubans from all walks of life—artists, architects, tobacco farmers, tradesmen, cigar rollers, senior citizens, paladar owners, religious pilgrims, musicians, dancers—and U.S. travelers with one another to openly share their values, insights and interests. Experience firsthand the true character and traditions of residents of the Caribbean's largest and most complex island by special arrangement and U.S. Treasury-approved license. See the UNESCO World Heritage sites of Santiago de Cuba's Castillo de San Pedro de la Roca (El Morro), Trinidad, Cienfuegos, the Viñales Valley and Old Havana; and visit Santa Clara and Pinar del Río. Immerse yourself in an intimate travel experience that explores history, art, culture, professions, trades, religion and cuisine to better understand how the Cuban people live and discover our shared interests.

Walk through Plaza de Armas at the entrance to Old Havana and engage local architects to learn about preservation efforts in Havana. Meet musicians from the Palenque de los Congos Reales music center in Trinidad, who will perform traditional and popular Cuban music and dance. Travel into the agricultural core of the country to interact with local organic and traditional tobacco farmers. Converse with elder Cubans in a typical senior citizen community center. Experience this unique journey and learn more about local Cuban culture and customs as you se enamora de la gente de Cuba (fall in love with the people of Cuba).

Habana Compás musicians and dancers exemplify the lively tradition of musical expression in Cuba.
