Namibia

Open Skies &
Endless Horizons

Windhoek • Etosha • Kunene • Swakopmund • Sossusvlei

July 21 – August 2, 2018

Co-sponsored by: The Vassar Travel Program

Faculty Leader: Jill Schneiderman Ph.D., Professor of Earth Sciences, Vassar College
Dear Bryn Mawr alumnae/i, family and friends,

I invite you to join fellow Bryn Mawr alumnae/i, as well as alumnae/i from Vassar College, on this once in a lifetime trip to Namibia – the land of open skies and endless horizons.

Namibia is renowned for captivating vistas, sculpted red canyons, and some of the most spectacular sand dunes on the planet. The Namib Desert, with its shimmering mirages, swirling sand seas, and apricot-colored parabolic dunes, has been described as a Technicolor dreamscape. What’s more, the power of wind and water will be on ample display as you take in the view of desert sands juxtaposed against roiling swells of the South Atlantic Ocean. Along the way, you will experience wild life conservancies and game reserves – viewing leopards, rhinos, zebras, antelopes and elephants, tribal outposts and small towns, all the while learning about the fascinating history of this former German colony and one of the world’s largest diamond producer.

The trip ends with an awe inspiring visit to Sossusvlei in the Namib Desert. There, you will be able to walk among some of Namibia’s highest sand dunes to watch the spectacular sunset slowly fade over the horizon. As the sun sets, you will be left amidst the whisper of the desert wind and spectacle of the unobstructed galaxy of stars overhead.

One of the great pleasures of these trips is chance for alumnae/i to immerse themselves in the experiences as companions in travel. By merging academically and aesthetically, direct experience of a unique and otherworldly landscape, this program offers opportunities to learn about Namibia’s geological, ecological, and cultural significance. I hope you will join us on this journey to a spectacular place on Earth.

Since space is limited, I warmly encourage you to reserve your place quickly.

Warm regards,

Saskia Subramanian
President, Bryn Mawr College Alumnae Association
Jill Schneiderman has taught at Vassar College since 1995 in the Department of Earth Science and Geography where her courses explore the relationship between HUMAN BEINGS and the physical environment. She and her students address questions such as: how have physical environments shaped the development of human cultures? How have humans modified the physical world through development practices? How have human belief systems and attitudes shaped environmental practices? She is the editor of and contributor to The Earth Around Us: Maintaining a Livable Planet (2003), For the Rock Record: Geologists on Intelligent Design (2009), and Liberation Science: Putting Science to Work for Social Justice (2012). Jill has led alumnae/i trips to Iceland, Canadian Rockies and Costa Rica in the past and continues to thrill her audience.

Tour Itinerary

July 20, 2018 – Depart for Windhoek
Depart the U.S. for Windhoek, Namibia (meals aloft)

July 21 – Arrive Windhoek, Namibia
Welcome to Namibia! Windhoek (“wind corner” in Afrikaans) is the commercial and legislative capital of Namibia. Developed around a permanent water source by the indigenous pastoralists- it was later modernized by the Germans in the 1840s. One can still see the German influence in architecture and food when in the city.

Welcome dinner at hotel and safari briefing by your guide.
Overnight: Hilton Windhoek Hotel (B)
July 22 – Windhoek | Okonjima Nature Reserve
Depart with driver and guide to the Okonjima Nature Reserve. Lunch en route at guest’s own account. Okonjima is a 20,000 hectare private game reserve that was formerly a cattle ranch. Upon arrival, we will embark on an afternoon leopard tracking excursion.

After dinner, join your guide at the nocturnal hide where you may view wildlife such as porcupine, honey badgers and caracal, among others. Overnight: Okonjima Plains Camp (B, L, D)

July 23 – Okonjima Nature Reserve
Morning guided walk: identify some of the more than 250 bird species in the area, including Namibian endemics – carp’s black tit, hartlaub’s francolin and the damara rock runner.

After lunch, we will visit AfriCat's “Information & Carnivore Care Center,” which offers you valuable insight into the work of The AfriCat Foundation. Witness first-hand their mission, which is to contribute to the long-term conservation of Namibia’s large carnivores. AfriCat was created as a result of information learned on Okonjima when it was still a cattle farm. The farm suffered significant losses from leopards and other large cats. AfriCat’s influence has led to the rescue of many trapped large carnivores. Since 1993, 1060 of these predators have been rescued and more than 85% were released back into the wild. Overnight: Okonjima Plains Camp (B,L,D)

July 24 – Okonjima | Etosha National Park
This morning continue further north to a lodge situated on the outskirts of the Etosha Game Reserve. Arrive in time for a late afternoon game drive on the Onguma Reserve. The Reserve covers an area of over 34 000 hectares and incorporates ecological substrata such as savannah, bushveld, omuramba and dry pan. Age-old and well-worn migration routes, once used by elephant and buffalo, wander through Onguma’s dry riverbeds. The reserve boasts over thirty different animal species. Plain game animals roam freely on the reserve and predators, although not easy to spot, are nevertheless common residents of the area. Lions are frequently seen and often heard. There is a healthy black rhino and leopard population and hyenas are also frequently seen. Overnight: Onguma Fort (B, D)

July 25 – Game drive in Etosha National Park
Early morning game drive in the Etosha Game Reserve. Etosha meaning “place of dry water,” encompasses a huge, flat calcrete depression (or “pan”) of about 5,000 square-kilometers. The pan provides a great, parched, silver-white backdrop of shimmering mirages to an area of semi-arid savannah grassland and thorn scrub. The pan itself contains water only after very good rains and sometimes for only a few days each year but is enough to stimulate the growth of blue-green algae that lures thousands of flamingos. Etosha attracts all the major predators as well as the endangered black rhino. It is a scene from “Noah’s Ark” as herds of animals take their turn at the watering holes. Overnight: Onguma Fort (B, L, D)
July 26 – Etosha | Kunene Region
This morning after breakfast, we continue to Kunene (formerly known as Damaraland). This area is a huge, untamed, and ruggedly beautiful region of Namibia leaving most travelers in awe. Here one can see prehistoric watercourses with open plains and grassland, massive granite koppies and deep gorges. Our lodge offers scenic drives down to the Klip River Valley, where permanent springs provide water for the local population of zebras, antelopes and occasionally elephants, lions and black rhinos. Springboks, kudu and oryx are a permanent fixture and even the nervous and shy klipspringers are sometimes seen leaping about on the steep cliffs as if they are flying.
Overnight: Grootberg Lodge (B, D)

July 27 – Kunene Region
This morning we will depart for a rhino tracking experience this morning accompanied by a professional wild life guide and trackers. Part of the tracking will take place on foot. This activity is along bumpy roads and walking on rocky terrain with sweeping views of the horizons.
Overnight: Grootberg Lodge (B, L, D)

July 28 – Kunene | Twyfelfontein
We head to Twyfelfontein today. The area has been inhabited for 6,000 years, first by hunter-gatherers and later by Khoikhoi herders. Both ethnic groups used it as a place of worship and a site to conduct shamanist rituals. In the process of these rituals at least 2,500 rock carvings were created, as well as a few rock paintings. Displaying one of the largest concentrations of rock petroglyphs in Africa, UNESCO approved Twyfelfontein as Namibia’s first World Heritage Site in 2007. Here, you will have an opportunity to view some of these ancient engravings as well as secondary sites such as the Organ Pipes and Burnt Mountain.
Overnight: Twyfelfontein Country Lodge (B, D)

July 29 – Twyfelfontein | Swakopmund
Early breakfast before departing on a Himba village excursion. The Himba are semi-nomadic herders. Because of the harsh desert climate in the region where they live and their seclusion from outside influences, the Himba have managed to maintain much of their traditional lifestyle. Members live under a tribal structure based on bilateral descent that helps them survive in one of the most extreme environments on earth.
Later we continue South to Swakopmund- a beautiful coastal town on the Atlantic ocean. Founded by the Germans in 1892 in an effort to establish a deep sea harbor, today it remains a thriving town with a strong European influences as seen by the architecture and also a place for locals to come during the hot summer season due to its proximity to the ocean. Rest of the day at your leisure to enjoy the town. Overnight: Strand Hotel (B)

July 30 – Swakopmund | Walvis Bay Excursion
After breakfast depart to Walvis Bay for a full day excursion. One of the most popular activities is driving amid the massive sand dunes. This excursion is an informative and exciting activity and a contrast in landscape with endless sand bordering the ocean. Overnight: Strand Hotel (B)
July 31 – Swakopmund | Sossusvlei (Namib Desert)
We will fly to the Sossusvlei area and will be picked up for a short road transfer to your lodge. The sand dunes of Sossusvlei in the Namib Desert are often referred to as the highest dunes in the world. Various arguments are laid out to support this claim, but all miss the point, which is that Sossusvlei is surely one of the most spectacular sights in Namibia and well worth the visit.
Overnight: Kulala Desert Lodge (B, D)

August 1 – Sossusvlei
This morning you depart on an early morning excursion to Sesriem Canyon. The canyon derives its name from the fact that early Afrikaner trekkers had to use six (‘ses’) leather thongs (a thong is a ‘riem’) so that their buckets could reach the water far below. The canyon begins as an almost imperceptible, but nevertheless deep, cleft in level, stony ground and then widens until it finally flattens out onto the plain. Because it is so deep and sheltered, it often holds water well into the dry season - a welcome sight in such a barren and stark environment.
Overnight: Kulala Desert Lodge (B, L, D)

August 2 – Sossusvlei | Windhoek | Departure
Fly back to Windhoek. Met on arrival and assisted with airport check-in formalities for your onward flight back to the U.S.

There is no refund for unused portions of a tour once it has commenced, and you are solely responsible for costs incurred by you due to missed, canceled or delayed transportation. Your decision not to participate on the tour due to State Department warnings, fear of travel, illness or any other reason will be deemed a cancellation. If a flight or other delay for any reason prevents you from joining the tour on the tour departure date and time, you will be considered a no-show, and we cannot provide a full or partial refund or credit toward a future tour, but you may join the tour late if you wish and must pay any additional operational expenses if applicable such as, but not limited to special transport arrangements, hotel accommodations and local staff to assist.

Insurance: Immersion Journeys recommends that you purchase trip cancellation, medical, and baggage insurance to cover penalties and cancellation charges. Once your registration is processed, you will receive information on trip cancellation from Bryn Mawr College, although you may select any insurer of your choice. However, any questions about what travel insurance does or does not cover should be addressed directly to the travel insurance company. If you decline insurance coverage, you will personally assume full responsibility for any financial loss associated with your travel arrangements, and you could lose your travel investment and/or have to pay more money to correct the situation. Please contact Sarah Doody at sdoody@brynmawr.edu or 610-526.-316 with any questions.
Cancellation or Substitution by Us: We will make commercially reasonable efforts to keep the itinerary as it has been published; however, the final itinerary may vary due to availability and factors beyond our control. We may in our sole discretion substitute services such as hotels or goods of similar quality for any service or good stated in the itinerary. If a tour is cancelled, our liability is limited to a full refund of your payments, and we will not be liable for any other costs, damages, or refunds of any kind for any loss, delay, inconvenience, disappointment, or expense whatsoever in such circumstances. If for reasons beyond our control, a tour in progress must be interrupted or cancelled, we will refund a portion of the price depending on our actual costs incurred.

Airfares: Airlines and airfares included in any brochure are subject to change without notice. Please check with Immersion Journeys or your travel agent for conditions applicable to your airline ticket. Even after you have paid, tours with scheduled air transportation within or from the United States are subject to supplemental price increases that may be imposed by the supplier and/or government. You hereby consent to any such price increase. We will not change your requested seat assignments on commercial aircraft without permission. However, airlines often change seat assignments to satisfy their loyalty members or because of equipment changes (aircraft type). We are not notified of these changes in advance, and often clients are not made aware of these changes until they arrive at the airport. We are not responsible for seat assignment changes made by the airline. Frequent flyer programs are private agreements between airlines and passengers, and we cannot be held responsible for mileage discrepancies involving airline loyalty reward programs.

Passports and Visas: International travel requires a passport valid 6 months beyond your intended return travel date. In many cases, you will also need to have multiple consecutive blank visa pages within your passport (the number varies depending on the destination(s)). Many destinations also require that visas be obtained prior to travel. Please speak with us if you are unsure about the visa requirements for your travel destination, but you are solely responsible for complying with passport and visa requirements.

Security and Safety: We are strongly committed to protecting your security and well-being. However, travel, safaris and sightseeing ventures are inherently dangerous activities. Immersion Journeys strongly recommends that you exercise extreme caution when participating in tour events. Parts of your tour may involve high altitudes, hiking, cycling and/or driving over rough and dusty terrain.

All tour participants booking with Immersion Journeys certify that they are in good health, fit to travel and have no specific medical problems. It is the responsibility of each tour participant to obtain health and medical certificates, inoculations and vaccinations. Any physical disability that may require special attention or treatment must be reported in writing at the time your reservation is made. Passage may be refused to any person whose state of health or physical conditions render them, in the opinion of the tour company or its suppliers, unfit. Children under sixteen (16) years of age must be supervised by parent(s) or guardian(s) who will bear ultimate responsibility of their actions. Immersion Journeys recommends that you purchase insurance to cover medical expenses, trip cancellation and interruption, and loss of baggage. Please contact Immersion Journeys for further details.

We assume no responsibility for any personal injury, property damage, or other loss, accident, delay, inconvenience, or irregularity which may be occasioned by reason of any act or omission of any of the Vendors or airlines providing flights to or from your tour.

Conduct During the Tour: You are also responsible for respecting the authority and following the directions of the tour guide and the laws of the countries in your itinerary. We may exclude you from participating in all or any part of the tour if, in our sole discretion, your condition or behavior renders you unfit for the tour or unfit for continuation once the tour has begun. Unfitness may include, without limitation, any behavior that, regardless of its cause, is inappropriate or offensive or interferes with the delivery of tour services, or may constitute a hazard or embarrassment.
