The exclusively chartered, Five-Star m.v. Tere Moana, a sophisticated and authentic small ship, accommodates only 90 guests, features complimentary nonalcoholic and alcoholic beverages and includes all shipboard gratuities. Travel in style while enjoying the benefits afforded by small ship cruising— the camaraderie of like-minded travelers, exemplary service and a unique opportunity and journey highlight to be on deck as you cruise into the heart of Seville on Spain's legendary Guadalquivir River. The m.v. Tere Moana was relaunched in 2013 under new ownership following an extensive multimillion-dollar refurbishment.

En route from Lisbon to Barcelona, visit three UNESCO World Heritage sites and Portugal’s lesser-traveled Algarve region. Stand on Gibraltar’s “Top of the Rock” to see the Pillars of Hercules spanning the scenic Strait of Gibraltar. Visit the regal city of Granada. Call on two of the enchanting Balearic Islands—Ibiza and Palma de Mallorca. See the magnificent Alhambra Palace and the spectacular sights that inspired works by Gaudí and Picasso. Enjoy the melancholy rhythms of fado music and the joyful beat of flamenco. Lectures by onboard study leaders enlighten you with the history, legends and modern life of these dramatic cities and villages.

Join your fellow alumnae/i for this outstanding program and great value! The combination of an exclusive itinerary, intimate small ship and Early Booking Savings proved to be a quick sellout last season. I encourage you to make your plans early and reserve soon while space is still available. Early Booking Savings are only available through October 3, 2014.

Rosi Song specializes in the literature, intellectual history, and culture of contemporary Spain. Her research also includes an exploration of literary ties between Spain and Latin America through the genre of detective fiction and, more recently, the representation of Latin American immigrants in Spanish society. She is the co-editor of a collection of critical essays entitled Traces of Contamination: Unearthing the Francoist Legacy in Contemporary Spanish Discourse (Bucknell UP, 2004) and is currently working on another volume on the “la movida.” Her articles have appeared in Romance Notes, Journal of Spanish Cultural Studies, Revista Iberoamericana, Hispania and recent collections on contemporary Spain such as Casa encantada: lugares de memoria en la España constitucional (1975-2004) (Vervuert, 2005) and Border Interrogations: Crossing and Questioning Spanish Frontiers from the Middle Ages to the Present (Berghahn Books, 2008). She teaches courses on modern and contemporary Spanish narrative and culture, detective fiction in both Spain in Latin America, and film.
Flourishing Cultures along Iberia's Historic Trade Routes and the Age of Discovery are showcased on this voyage to fortified medieval towns and modern cities that retain the artistic and architectural treasures from the Moorish Period. Previous exposure to the Greeks and Romans and the Moors' acceptance of both Jewish and Christian life allowed for the coexistence of diverse cultural groups, which led to great leaps forward in algebra, medicine, optics, horticulture, art and architecture. This blossoming of knowledge and ability was the impetus behind the Golden Age of Discovery, when ships sailed from these shores to the New World. It was those journeys, which brought the bounty back to Iberia, that created great wealth and established an aristocratic tradition of savoring the leisurely pace of Mediterranean life in the idyllic seaside cities, towns and villages that you will experience on this voyage.

Lisbon, Portugal
Lisbon’s rich cultural heritage is reflected in its well-preserved palaces, magnificent churches and impressive castle.

Portimão, the Algarve
On Portugal’s charming, sun-washed southern coast lies Portimão in the historic province of Algarve. Settled in ancient times by the Phoenicians and Romans, the Algarve was later ruled by the Moors, and today its Moorish heritage survives in its distinctive architecture and savory regional cuisine. During the 15th and 16th centuries, intrepid Portuguese mariners, including Vasco da Gama, set sail from the Algarve’s shores on voyages of discovery that eventually circled the globe before triumphantly returning to Lisbon. Visit the scenic hilltop village of Alte and stroll through the nearby town of Silves, a medieval center of art, poetry and learning. Walk along the ramparts of its 12th-century Moorish castle and visit the cathedral, a unique fusion of Romanesque, Gothic and Baroque architecture.

Seville, Andalusia, Spain
Enjoy the unique experience of cruising into the heart of extraordinary Seville, Andalusia’s lively capital, on the Guadalquivir River. Then drive along Colón Avenue, lined with typical Sevillana houses, to the neoclassical Maestranza Bullring (the largest in Spain) and the Golden Tower, a remnant of Seville’s Moorish fortifications. Walk through Santa Cruz Quarter, the old part of the city, a gleaming maze of white houses and flower-filled patios. Tour the legendary Alcázar, a UNESCO World Heritage site featuring the distinctive 14th-century, Mudéjar-style former residence of Seville’s Moroccon and Spanish rulers.

The idyllic Balearic Island of Ibiza, a UNESCO World Heritage site, is famous for its cove beaches, mesmerizing crystal-clear waters and high towering cliffs, and it is one of Europe’s oldest towns.
Known locally as La Seu, the Catalan Gothic cathedral in Old Palma was built after the conquest of Mallorca by King James I of Aragon on the former site of a Moorish temple.

The magnificent Cathedral is a classic example of late Gothic architecture and is Europe’s second-largest Christian house of worship after St. Peter’s Basilica in Rome. Inside, view the monument to Christopher Columbus, whose remains were transported here from Havana, Cuba, in 1902. Later, enjoy a traditional flamenco dance performance onboard the ship.

Gibraltar, British Crown Colony

The southernmost tip of the Iberian Peninsula, Gibraltar was considered by the ancient Greeks and Romans to be one of the two Pillars of Hercules, marking the then boundary of the known world. Drive to the “Top of the Rock,” the 1400-foot-high limestone promontory guarding the Strait of Gibraltar, which separates Europe and Africa. Observe the amusing antics of Gibraltar’s Barbary apes, the only colony of wild monkeys in Europe. See the impressive geological wonders in St. Michael’s Cave and, across the strait, Jebel Moussa, the mountain said to be the second Pillar of Hercules. Enjoy an afternoon at leisure to explore “The Rock” on your own.

Granada, Andalusia, Spain

Granada is scenically located atop three hills framed by the dramatic backdrop of the snow-clad Sierra Nevada Mountains. From here, monarchs of the Nasrid Dynasty ruled for 250 years over the last Muslim kingdom in Spain, leaving a priceless architectural legacy—the magnificent Alhambra, a UNESCO World Heritage site. Enjoy time at leisure to walk through its outer precincts, admire the genius of medieval Moorish craftsmen within and then stroll through the beautifully landscaped Generalife Gardens.

Ibiza, Balearic Islands

Be on deck as we approach the Mediterranean island of Ibiza, a spectacular UNESCO World Heritage site not often visited by Americans. Visit the well-preserved, walled Old Town and tour the island’s Renaissance fortifications and the historic Las Salinas Reserve, where the Carthaginians began extracting salt from the sea over 2000 years ago.

Palma de Mallorca, Balearic Islands

The imposing citadel overlooking the harbor was converted into the Spanish Royal Palace of La Almudaina in the 13th century. See the magnificent sandstone Palma Cathedral, begun in 1230 and constructed over 300 years; it represents the heights of the Catalan Gothic style. Early 20th-century renovations to its interior by the famed architect Antoni Gaudí produced a uniquely harmonious blend of old and new.

Barcelona

The lively and beautiful quarters of Barcelona’s Mediterranean metropolis are filled with the artistic treasures of Gaudí, Picasso and Dalí. The city center has the greatest concentration of Gothic architecture in Europe and proudly displays its heritage and roots as a Roman trading port.
M.V. TERE MOANA

The exclusively chartered Five-Star M.V. TERE MOANA epitomizes intimate small ship cruising and can dock in ports inaccessible to larger vessels. Accommodating 90 passengers, the ship entered service in 2013 under new ownership following a multimillion-dollar refurbishment.

Travel in style and Five-Star comfort while enjoying the benefits afforded by small ship cruising—exemplary service and sophisticated settings—without the long lines and other inconveniences of larger ships.

Eight of the Five-Star, spacious, ocean-view accommodations have private verandas. Each Stateroom features a large picture window, private marble- and teak-appointed bathroom with shower, one queen bed or two twin beds, in-suite complimentary beverages, luxurious European linens and amenities, individual climate control, robes, cotton slippers, satellite television, safe and hair dryer. Complimentary welcome flowers and fruit are provided in each Stateroom upon arrival.

Complimentary non-alcoholic and alcoholic beverages are served throughout the cruise. The elegant L’Etoile dining room and La Veranda restaurant accommodate all guests at a single, unassigned seating, and an attentive staff serves international cuisine featuring fresh local ingredients. Early-risers’ coffee, buffet breakfast, buffet lunch, afternoon tea and dinner are served daily. Enjoy indoor or outdoor dining in La Veranda for breakfast and lunch. Dinner is served nightly in the L’Etoile dining room, with a menu featuring two-star Michelin chef-designed signature dishes. Complimentary room service and vegetarian and wellness meal options are available.

The inviting and spacious public areas are tastefully appointed and include a large lounge, where a program of enriching lectures is held, two bars, a comfortable library with computers, wireless Internet hotspots, spa, fitness center, boutique and outdoor swimming pool.

The M.V. TERE MOANA’s English-speaking crew provides courteous, professional service and sails with an onboard physician. There is one crew member for every 1.5 guests. The ship has an elevator.
