Dear Bryn Mawr Alumnae and Friends,

I invite you to join an exclusive journey into the heart of East Africa. This 12-day journey was thoughtfully designed to explore Tanzania’s fascinating history and culture while taking advantage of premier wildlife viewing.

Our adventure begins with a short, scenic flight to a private nature refuge and model for community-based tourism located just east of Serengeti National Park. This will make for the perfect launching point, offering not only your first taste of wildlife viewing, but several un-scripted encounters with members of the local Maasai community. Next we will spend three spectacular days immersed in the untamed wilderness of the magnificent Serengeti.

After we depart Serengeti National Park, we will stop at Olduvai Gorge en route to the lush and verdant Ngorongoro Crater, which is home to the highest concentration of wildlife in the world. Finishing out an already unforgettable journey, we will spend the last two days at Gibb’s Farm, a peaceful, eco-friendly sanctuary.

In order to enhance wildlife viewing and cultural interaction for our guests, space is limited. Call us to reserve your spot on this unforgettable journey.

Sincerely,

Wendy M. Greenfield
Executive Director, Bryn Mawr Alumnae Association

Journey off the beaten path, to a land more bountiful and peaceful than you’ve ever imagined.

Tanzania is, quite simply, the ultimate safari destination. Having set aside one-third of its land for the purpose of conservation, it is no wonder the country boasts the highest concentrations of wildlife in the world.

Visiting will feel like stepping into your wildest dream. You’ll stalk with lions, roam with elephants, strut with flamingos, feel dwarfed by a 2,000-foot-deep crater, marvel at giant baobab trees, and sleep under the stars. You’ll discover unbridled beauty at World Heritage Sites, practice tracking skills in remote wild lands, and experience peacefulness and connection to the Earth like never before.

Tanzania is also one of the most peaceful and stable countries on the African continent, managing to stay free of the political upheaval that has plagued so many other African countries. With a rich cultural tapestry comprising more than 120 distinct ethnic groups, Tanzania was founded upon a spirit of inclusiveness and unity. That spirit persists today, and extends to visitors to this beautiful country; travelers are often amazed at the warmth and generosity they feel from almost everyone they meet.

BRYN MAWR ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION
Complete Itinerary

3/4/15 Depart From North America

3/5/15 Arrival into Arusha
Thomson Safaris staff will meet you at the airport and transfer you to your comfortable lodge.
Accommodations: Rivertrees Country Inn

3/6/15 Arusha to Eastern Serengeti Ecosystem
Fly from Arusha to the Eastern Serengeti ecosystem. As you journey from the airstrip to camp, your guides will give you a brief history of the 12,000-acre refuge. Enjoy wildlife viewing along the way, one of the tangible results of conservation efforts in the area. Giraffe, eland, dik dik, ostrich, leopard and even wild dog can be seen in this unique wildlife haven, dubbed “Giraffic Park” by one enthusiastic Thomson guest. Before lunch, you’ll have the chance to visit a Maasai village school, where you’ll learn more about the role of education in Maasai culture. This afternoon, stretch your legs on a brief but scenic walk (a luxury not available in the national parks). A local wildlife scout will accompany you and your guide on this walk, pointing out nearby wildlife.
Accommodations: Eastern Serengeti Nyumba (BLD)

3/7/15 Eastern Serengeti Ecosystem
Enjoy a light breakfast before heading out on a morning hike. Being out on the plains on foot at this time of day is magical; the sun creeping above the horizon bathes the plains in a soft morning light as animals, are at their most active. Continue wildlife viewing and later, you’ll meet Maasai elder Nekaaki Kioki, a feisty grandmother and fantastic storyteller. She knows hundreds of Maasai folktales and tells them in a truly dramatic fashion. After dinner, take to the plains for a night drive. Because night drives are not permitted inside the national parks, few travelers in Tanzania have the chance to participate in such a unique experience.
Accommodations: Eastern Serengeti Nyumba (BLD)

3/8/15 Eastern Serengeti Ecosystem to Serengeti National Park
On your way out of the Eastern Serengeti, you’ll meet with members of the Enjipai Women’s Group, formed by a small group of Maasai women with a great entrepreneurial spirit. As you journey into the heart of Serengeti National Park, you’ll be able to spot loads of wildlife. The big cats often spend these hours lying drowsily on the granite outcroppings of rock (also known as kopjes) that dot the plains, or up in a tree, while antelope, zebra, giraffe and other animals continue to graze.
Accommodations: Southern Serengeti Nyumba (BLD)

3/9/15 Serengeti National Park
During drives through the vast Serengeti, your expert guide will point out leopards hidden deep in the branches of a tree, lions stalking in the tall savannah grasses, and large herds of elephants wandering the plains (though you probably won’t have any trouble spotting those yourself!). You’ll enjoy a picnic lunch so you don’t miss a minute of the action.
Accommodations: Southern Serengeti Nyumba (BLD)

3/10/15 Serengeti National Park
Those with advance reservations will have the opportunity to view the Serengeti from a truly unique vantage-point: floating high above it in a hot-air balloon. You’ll head to the launch site before daybreak, beginning your ascent just as the sun starts to rise over the stunning plains below. After a breathtakingly beautiful flight, you’ll be greeted with champagne and a full English breakfast in the bush, after which you’ll rejoin the group. For those who opt not to take the balloon excursion, there is much to discover within arm’s reach of camp; learn how to identify animal footprints and bird calls with your guide. For the remainder of the day, spend more time seeking out wildlife and exploring the Serengeti’s rich landscapes.
Accommodations: Southern Serengeti Nyumba (BLD)

3/11/15 Serengeti National Park to Ngorongoro Conservation Area
On your way out of Serengeti National Park, take in the gorgeous scenery and wildlife before moving on to the next part of your adventure. Make a short stop at Olduvai Gorge, the site where fossilized remains of animals and hominids dating back two million years were discovered by the Leakeys. A brief lecture and small museum tour are included. After settling in at an exclusive camp set on the rim of the Crater (7,200 feet), pull on your fleece jacket and join fellow travelers our the campfire.
Accommodations: Ngorongoro Nyumba (BLD)
3/12/15 Ngorongoro Highlands
Early this morning, you’ll depart for Ngorongoro Crater, a self-contained ecosystem absolutely teeming with wildlife. Often called “Africa's Eden,” this volcanic caldera is one of the few places on earth where it is possible to see all of the Big Five in just one day. And that’s just the beginning: baboons and warthog in the Lerai Forest, hundreds of brilliantly pink flamingo around Lake Magadi, and clusters of wildebeest and zebra call this ecological wonder home. To maximize your wildlife viewing time, you’ll enjoy a picnic lunch near a hippo pool on the crater floor. This evening, relax at the tembo fire, an open-air sitting area nestled at the foot of the organic gardens. The tradition of the nightly campfire began as a purely practical measure to ensure that elephants—or “tembo” in Swahili—were not tempted to feast in the organic gardens at night. It soon became a popular place to sit and relax at the end of the day.

Accommodations: Gibb’s Farm (BLD)

3/13/15 Ngorongoro Highlands
There’s so much to explore throughout the verdant grounds of Gibb’s Farm, this working coffee-estate could warrant its own safari! Start off your day with a guided nature walk where you’ll learn how to distinguish various animal tracks, learn Swahili names for local plants, and enjoy spectacular views of a nearby highlands waterfall. You’ll also have the opportunity to visit the home of Daniel Tewa, a charismatic local historian, storyteller, and respected member of the Iraqw people, and his wife, Elizabeth, a skilled artisan who will explain the iconography behind the hundreds of fancifully beaded “wedding skirts” she’s made over the years. Close out the afternoon with an indigenous medicine walk, during which a Maasai traditional healer will explain the medicinal uses of local fauna.

Accommodations: Gibb’s Farm (BLD)

3/14/15 Departure
Rise early to take in the delightful chorus of songbirds from your verandah and start the day off with a farm-fresh breakfast at Gibb’s. Heading back to Arusha, you will make a brief stop at the Cultural Heritage Center, which offers an abundance of wooden carvings, artifacts, apparel, and crafts. While the center caters mostly to tourists, they also have a separate wing that displays some of the finest African art in Tanzania. During a special farewell lunch at River House, you will have time to say goodbye to your safari companions and visit the heartwarming Shanga workshop. This socially conscious business creates new jobs and a sense of purpose for disabled local people who had few, if any, employment opportunities elsewhere. As the employees learn new skills, they are able to become active members of the community and make contributions to their families’ wellbeing. Transfer to a day room so you can freshen up and enjoy a light snack before your evening flight home.

Accommodations: Day Room at Mount Meru Hotel (BL Snack)

3/15/15 Arrive home
Please note: Thomson Safaris (TS) will attempt to adhere to this itinerary as much as possible. Any foreseeable changes in fees, such as fuel surcharges, increased park fees, or other fees that are out of TS control will be the responsibility of the guest. Some conditions (political, climatic, environmental, cultural, or wildlife migrations) may also necessitate changes in the itinerary. TS reserves the right to alter any itinerary at any time, if necessary. We will attempt to notify participants of changes as far in advance as possible. Costs incurred by such changes will be the responsibility of the participant.

Hot Air Balloon Optional Safari
Take in sweeping views of the African plains from a hot air balloon during your stay in the Serengeti. Launch at sunrise and, depending on wind conditions, float over the Seronera River Valley for 30 minutes to an hour. Upon descending, celebrate with a champagne toast, and enjoy a full English breakfast right on the savannah. You may see wildlife, but the most incredible part of the experience is the unforgettable bird’s eye perspective as you skim over the tops of acacia trees and observe the pristine landscape from above.

$540 per person, Advance reservations required; height and weight restrictions may apply.

Pre- and Post-Safari Extensions
No extensions are offered in conjunction with this trip however, the experts at Thomson Safaris are happy to arrange customized extensions upon request.
Why Tanzania?

Visiting Tanzania will feel like stepping into your wildest dream. You'll stalk with lions, roam with elephants, strut with flamingos, feel dwarfed by a 2,000-foot-deep crater, stand beneath giant baobab trees, and sleep under the stars. You'll discover unbridled beauty at World Heritage Sites, practice tracking skills in remote wild lands, learn about dozens of fascinating and unique cultures, and experience peacefulness and connection to the Earth like never before.

You'll feel safe and comfortable every step of your journey. Known as “the Switzerland of Africa,” Tanzania is a peaceful country. The people of Tanzania are some of the most warmhearted individuals on Earth, and they graciously welcome visitors into their homes and delight in sharing their culture with guests.

Experience amazing wildlife viewing year-round at Serengeti National Park, Ngorongoro Crater, and the Eastern Serengeti Nature Refuge, all of which are teeming with the animals you've dreamt of seeing on safari. Hone your wildlife spotting skills with the help of an expert guide, and make unforgettable memories on a once-in-a-lifetime adventure.

What to Expect

Your itinerary is specially designed to maximize your cultural and wildlife-viewing experience as well as your comfort. There is virtually no bad time to visit Tanzania. Rains in November and April motivate the perpetual movement of animals in search of water (also known as The Great Migration). The climate is typically dry, sunny, and warm. In northern Tanzania, expect temperatures with daytime highs in the 80s and lows in the 50s in the evenings and early mornings. Temperatures will be cooler at higher elevations, such as the rim of Ngorongoro Crater (7,200 feet). The timing of this trip was specifically chosen to occur just after calving season. Over a million wildebeest and zebra young will have been born just weeks (possibly days) before your arrival!

Activity Level

This tour involves exposure to the outdoors, full days of touring, and some walking, often along uneven terrain. This is not an active safari, but you should be in good physical condition in order to enjoy it to the fullest. Wildlife-viewing drives may last up to five hours on bumpy, dusty, and occasionally muddy roads. Since your comfort is a priority, these drives are minimized with wildlife viewing and/or cultural stops along the way.

Sustainable Travel

Recently named to Travel + Leisure’s 2013 World’s Best List in the category of Top Safari Outfitters, Thomson Safaris was selected as the tour operator for this trip because of their extensive expertise in northern Tanzania and award-winning reputation in the adventure travel business. Working exclusively in Tanzania for over 33 years, they are leaders in ethical, sustainable, and responsible tourism. Below are some of the many ways Thomson Safaris continues to give back.

- Thomson owners Rick Thomson and Judi Wineland also own the Tanzanian operations, where they hire locally and provide excellent benefits, job security, and training.
- To minimize the impact on Tanzanian landscapes and wildlife, Thomson Safaris insists on adherence to Leave No Trace ethics at all its camps and on its Mt. Kilimanjaro treks.
- Thomson cares about the environment: your mobile camps utilize solar lighting and water-conserving technologies, and the U.S. headquarters has 110 solar panels, providing 1/3 of its power.
- Through personal giving and their many partner philanthropy organizations, owners Rick Thomson and Judi Wineland have helped to set up sustainable Tanzanian businesses, support Tanzanian schools and women’s empowerment initiatives, and fund a 12,000-acre conservation project east of the Serengeti.
- Thomson Safaris works with the organization Green Living Project in an effort to educate individuals and communities on diverse sustainable practices around the world.
- In 1996, a group of Thomson guests were touched by Tanzania’s limited educational resources and, along with Thomson owner Judi Wineland, founded the nonprofit organization Focus on Tanzanian Communities (FoTZC). The heart of its mission is to partner with Tanzanian communities on sustainable development projects. In addition to funding, building, and donating much-needed supplies to local schools, FoTZC provides funding for healthcare, clean water and women’s empowerment initiatives.

Experienced Guides

Thomson Safaris was one of the first safari operators in Tanzania to insist on local, Tanzanian guides. All your guides have a minimum of 10 years’ experience in the field. More than just leaders, spotters, and wildlife experts, they are true ambassadors for Tanzania. In addition to superior wildlife spotting skills, your team of guides offers local insight that can’t be found in guidebooks. They can’t wait to share their country’s treasures with you!
Transportation while on safari

You’ve gone halfway around the world to be on safari; you don’t want to waste a single minute stuck in the mud or unable to cross the river. Luckily, you’ll be traveling in specially customized vehicles. These reliable, rugged vehicles are tough enough for river crossings, wild terrain, dirt roads, and anything that comes your way!

Benefits of your customized safari vehicle:

- While the vehicle is built to accommodate 8 passengers, a maximum of 6 guests per vehicle means room to move and guaranteed window seats for everyone
- Better views because the seats have been lowered
- Protection from the sun due to the pop-up roof
- The ability to stand up and get 360° views when the roof is “popped up”
- Easy battery recharging via multiple US-style outlets in each vehicle
- Worry-free river crossings with a custom snorkel that keeps the engine going
- Complimentary snacks and bottled water, throughout the safari
- No mileage restrictions – you’ll go wherever the wildlife is

Accommodations

Accommodations have been chosen for their unique African feel, stunning settings, and ideal proximity to attractions. All lodges are comfortable and have electricity and private bathrooms. Your camps, which were designed exclusively by Thomson, are called Nyumbas (Swahili for “home”). They are eco-friendly mobile camps set on private sites that allow direct access to wildlife. The large walk-in tents feature real beds dressed in deluxe linens. En suite bathrooms include water basins, showers, and self-contained, pump-flush toilets. Due to ecological and conservation issues, none of the camps have fixed plumbing, and they utilize the abundant sunshine to provide solar-powered LED lighting. The camp chef prepares fresh gourmet meals from local ingredients, and restricted diets are easily accommodated with advance notice.

Accommodations for your trip include:

Rivertrees Country Inn (1 night)

Nestled in the foothills of Mount Meru, in view of Mount Kilimanjaro, this peaceful country estate combines simple elegance and modern convenience. Wake up in your farmhouse-style room to the sound of the rushing Usa River, and enjoy a hearty breakfast in an open-air, thatched-roof dining area.

Eastern Serengeti Nyumba, 2 nights

Wake to exceptional views of the Serengeti at this private, remote site. After a day of adventure, you’ll appreciate the comforts of the camp. Enjoy a hearty dinner prepared fresh from local ingredients, and discuss the day’s excitement with your fellow travelers and attentive staff.

Serengeti Nyumba, 3 nights

These semi-permanent, seasonal camps are strategically plotted across the Serengeti according to wildlife migration patterns. Each location offers comfort in the heart of the wilderness. With spacious tents, cozy bedding, and en-suite bathrooms, you’ll have to look outside to remember that you’re deep in the bush. Best of all, with eco-friendly features like solar lighting, you’re not harming the stunning landscape.

Ngorongoro Nyumba, 1 night

The Ngorongoro camp is set on the eastern edge of the Ngorongoro Crater’s rim, and offers the best possible access in and out of the crater, as well as a more private, remote experience. In the morning, you’ll have the eastern floor of the crater almost completely to yourself. Settle in to your spacious tent, enjoy a hot safari-shower in your en-suite facilities, head to the campfire for a drink before dinner, and enjoy a traditional Tanzanian meal, a specialty of the camp chefs here. Don’t forget to bundle up at this camp, as nights can be chilly.

Gibb’s Farm, 2 nights

Fresh food, fresh air, and fresh perspectives abound at Gibb’s Farm. At the end of full days of exploration, relax in your eco-friendly cottage, set amidst the farm’s lush gardens. Gibb’s Farm offers a variety of activities, adventures and opportunities to rejuvenate, from guided walks around the extensive grounds of this working coffee estate, to bike tours through the hills of the Ngorongoro highlands, to Maasai-inspired spa treatments. Whether you wish to relax and recharge, explore the diverse natural surroundings, or learn more about the local culture and traditions, you have a variety of experiences to choose from at Gibb’s.

Mount Meru Hotel, Day Room

The Mount Meru Hotel has been a mainstay of Arusha accommodations since it opened in the 1960s, when Tanzania tourism was still in its infancy. It was recently renovated top to bottom, and the finished product is even better than the original. With reliable modern conveniences, a variety of dining options, and a central location, it is an ideal place to end your safari.
