UPPER AMAZON
EXPLORING PERU’S PACAYA-SAMIRIA RESERVE
ABOARD DELFIN II | AUGUST 17-26, 2019
DEAR BRYN MAWR ALUMNAE/I AND FRIENDS,

There’s a sense of enchantment about being out on the fabled Amazon River, as you listen to the symphony of noises emanating from the depths of the jungle. Part of the mystery of the Amazon is the fact that the omnipresent wildlife is so skilled at concealment; but as you get the hang of spotting, trying to outdo your guide, your excitement will quickly escalate.

Join us for an exploration of Peru’s massively biodiverse Pacaya-Samiria Reserve aboard the Delfin II, the perfect platform for discovering this living, breathing forest. This exquisite, 28-guest ship, reserved exclusively for Bryn Mawr, is specially designed for the river environment and to keep you connected to it—open, airy decks and spacious cabins, each with an expansive window wall, afford nonstop views of life along the Amazon. Delfin II is equipped with comfortable, custom-made skiffs that are able to thread through narrow canopied waterways. Plus, she carries a fleet of kayaks, providing rare, intimate experiences with this magical environment.

Each day you will have rewarding natural history experiences and meaningful cultural encounters with the people who call the river home. And you’ll return to the ship’s cool confines to enjoy wonderful company, music, and excellent meals that highlight the remarkable flavors of the region.

The staff, unmatched in the region, will be the key to your experience. You’ll go with a veteran expedition leader and a Lindblad-National Geographic certified photo instructor—a naturalist who is specially trained to help you capitalize on the rare wildlife sightings while shooting in the often-challenging conditions of the rain forest. The handpicked local guides are especially skilled at finding wildlife, since most of them grew up along the river, and they are the most gracious hosts when you enter villages along the river.

The Amazon is an all-five-senses travel experience unlike anything else. I hope you’ll join us on this voyage, August 17-26, 2019. To make your reservation, please return the enclosed reservation form or call 888-773-9007.

Sincerely,

Saskia Subramanian ’88

EXPLORE THE WORLD’S MOST BIODIVERSE RAIN FOREST

We’ll actively explore, getting out on one or more outings each day, with each group following the lead of the naturalist, and interest of the guests, not banding together like a bus tour. To discover the intricate networks of the seasonally flooded forest, we’ll board Delfin II’s three skiffs, guided by drivers who are agile navigators and eagle-eyed spotters. They help us develop our jungle eyes—to find the elusive species that make exploring the Amazon so fascinating. Cruising clear water, stained black with tannins mirroring the sky, we might see pink and gray dolphins feeding while chattering terns dive for prey they’ve chased to the surface. Or in the brown water tributaries, spot common squirrel monkeys, a yellow-handed titi, or perhaps a small group of shy monk saki monkeys will show themselves. Or find myriad bird species—like the motmot, striated herons, blue-and-yellow and scarlet macaws, along with diverse kingfishers, flycatchers, weaverbirds, and more.
REWARDING CULTURAL CONNECTIONS

Your visit to Amazonas may rank among your most meaningful cultural experiences. Lindblad-National Geographic guests are exclusively invited by Minga Peru to visit one of the riverside villages where they work. Celebrating its 20th anniversary in 2018, Minga Peru is a nonprofit organization whose mission is to effect social change through the empowerment of women and families in rural communities of the Peruvian Amazon. You’ll be received warmly by the women of a village community along the Pacaya-Samiria Reserve. They’ll share their projects with you, while children of all ages watch, read, or play nearby. One of the women will tell the story of how she discovered Minga Peru and how it changed her life. Other women, dressed in traditional blouses, will reveal the skills behind the handicrafts you see aboard Delfin II and in the village markets.

Clockwise from top: Spot wildlife along the river during frequent skiff rides; search for caimans on night excursions; meet the welcoming ribereños in their riverside communities.
THE PERFECT BASE CAMP: DELFIN II

Explore the remote Amazon in supreme comfort aboard the intimate Delfin II. Your base for daily explorations, the ship has a distinct advantage over any land-based camp—she moves, to give you an ever-varied experience of the Amazon’s diverse landscapes and wonders. Specially designed to sail these winding headwaters, she can venture into the jungle’s wild heart— and her fleet of nimble skiffs and kayaks allows you to venture even deeper. Back aboard, relax on the airy observation deck or visit the wellness specialist.

Delfin II’s steel exterior is clad in tropical hardwoods, and her interior gleams with wood floors and lacquered palm ceilings. Both the lounge and the dining room are welcoming and expansive public spaces, with generous walls of windows to keep you connected to the nonstop panorama outside. Spacious, comfortable cabins, also with river-framing windows, are the perfect ending to active days.

EXPERIENCE THE AMAZON WITH ALL YOUR SENSES

As you travel along the Amazon, you experience this internationally acclaimed cuisine (the first to earn a Cultural Heritage of the Americas award) from the comfort of a welcoming dining room, crafted by local artisans. Wake up to a rainbow of fresh-squeezed juices, experience seasonal ingredients relatively unknown outside the region and end your night with chocolate placed on your pillow. Take the recipes back with you, too, as you’ll have the opportunity to make ceviche, Peru’s national dish, and a pisco sour, its national drink.

RENOWNED STAFF & REGIONAL EXPERTISE

A seasoned Lindblad-National Geographic expedition leader and an experienced team of Peruvian naturalists accompany your voyage. Many of the naturalists were born in towns along the riverbanks and educated in schools in Iquitos. All are fluent in English, and their personal knowledge, along with their scientific training, makes for a fascinating story, as authentic as it is well-informed. One naturalist for every ten guests and a spectrum of specialties—biology, ornithology, ichthyology, and lepidopterology—ensure a daily diversity of interests and personalities for you.

CAPTURE IT ALL WITH EXPEDITION PHOTOGRAPHY

The Upper Amazon is rife with spectacular photo ops—from colorful birds to picturesque reflections on the mirrored water. You’ll travel with a Lindblad-National Geographic certified photo instructor, trained to help you with your camera settings, composition, and lighting so you’re better able to capture the moments at the heart of the voyage, and go home with some of the best shots of your life.

UPPER AMAZON
10 DAYS/9 NIGHTS—ABOARD DELFIN II

Voyage to the headwaters of the mighty Amazon in the heart of Peru’s rain forest aboard the elegant riverboat Delfin II. Slip through an intricate network of jungle waterways in a skiff or kayak, spotting various types of bird species, as well as caimans, tamarins, and sloths. Go on a bird-watching hike, peer up at towering ceiba trees, and witness glorious sunsets on the still waters of the Amazon River basin.

DAY 1: U.S./LIMA, PERU
Arrive in Lima in late evening and transfer to the conveniently located Wyndham Costa del Sol Lima Airport Hotel.

DAY 2: LIMA/IQUITOS/NAUTA/EMBARK
This morning fly to Iquitos and continue overland to the riverside village of Nauta, where the Delfin II awaits. Settle into your cabin, and gather for a welcome dinner of fine Peruvian cuisine on board. Tonight, step out on deck to gaze at the magnificent Amazon night sky. (B,L,D)

DAYS 3–8: PACAYA-SAMIRIA NATIONAL RESERVE
Spend this week exploring the Pacaya-Samiria National Reserve—a pristine swath of jungle stretching more than five million acres and harboring some of the Amazon’s most fascinating flora and fauna. Bordered by the Marañón and the Ucayali, these two powerful rivers converge to create the famed Amazon, which floods annually with nutrient-rich waters.
Set out into this remarkable wilderness on daily excursions by skiff, kayak, and foot on dry land. Skim past giant lily pads afloat on black-water lakes, and venture deep into the rain forest on narrow tributaries. Spot sloths and monkeys, including variably colored saddleback tamarins, noisy howlers, and shaggy-tailed monk saki monkeys. Watch for an astounding variety of birds, from tanagers and hummingbirds to parrots and endangered scarlet macaws. In the river, look for signs of the massive paiche fish, the Amazon’s largest; rare pink dolphins; and the legendary piranhas.

Enjoy an opportunity to swim in a lake in the reserve’s interior. Seek out Victoria amazonica, a giant water lily that grows in small lagoons. Go on a bird-watching hike, listening for the vocal oropendola and then looking for its telltale yellow tail. Watch the sun set and listen to a cacophonous symphony of nocturnal animals calling out across the treetops. Then slip through the forest in a skiff as night falls, using a spotlight to find caimans, frogs, fishing bats, and other creatures of the night.

One of the unexpected joys of traveling in the Upper Amazon of Peru is the interaction you have with the local ribereños, the traditional people who live on the riverbanks. Visit one of the communities and see the projects that Lindblad-National Geographic supports through Minga Peru, a local nonprofit, including a variety of handicrafts, women’s health initiatives, and sustainable farming. (B,L,D Daily)

DAY 9: DISEMBARK/NAUTA/IQUITOS/LIMA
Disembark in Nauta, stopping at the Amazon Rescue Center on the drive to Iquitos. Fly to Lima, where we visit Museo Larco and celebrate with a farewell dinner. Overnight at the Wyndham Costa del Sol Lima Airport Hotel. (B,L,D)

DAY 10: LIMA/U.S.
After breakfast, transfer to the airport for your flight home. (B)
