

STUDY ABROAD @BMC

From the Desk of Tracy Weber, Director of Global Education, Bryn Mawr College

Thank You!

Bryn Mawr faculty play an essential role in inspiring the international component of students' undergraduate study. Major advisers in particular provide support and guidance to students who wish to integrate study abroad into their academic careers at the College. Approval to study abroad is formally granted by the Study Abroad Committee, and the Major Adviser Evaluation Form is an important factor in the evaluation process. Students should discuss their study abroad plans, including both program choice and semester of study, with their major advisor in advance of applying for approval to study abroad. The Major Adviser Evaluation Form is due by the application deadline of February 15th and can be accessed on BiONIC through two different links (via the Major Work Plan or the BMC Students Menu). Thank you in advance supporting students in their study abroad journey!

Update: Spring 22 & Beyond

More than forty Bryn Mawr students are studying abroad this Spring, in England, Ireland, Scotland, Austria, Belgium, Denmark, France, Germany, Italy, Greece, Spain and South Korea. Applications for College approval to study abroad in Fall 2022 and Spring 2023 are now open, and I am so pleased to report interest remains strong among students seeking to go abroad in the next academic year. I look forward to working with academic departments to support your students, and I welcome the opportunity to meet, answer your questions, and collaborate; you can reach me any time at tweber1@brynmawr.edu or 610-526-7352.

Call for AY 22-23 Student Coordinators

Please encourage interested students to apply to be a Study Abroad Student Coordinator (SASC), a position with a direct and important impact on their fellow students.

As part of a small team, SASCs have an opportunity to provide valuable input to the study abroad office and act as a liaison for BMC students applying to study abroad.

This position is 6 hours per week and will work directly with the Director of Global Education Tracy Weber. Our office believes in nurturing an open environment that values and respects individual contributions and inspires collaboration to achieve our goals. We want to ensure that every student who wants to study abroad finds the opportunity that is right for them.

More information can be found at brynmawr.edu/studyabroad.

Info Sessions

Additional events will be scheduled throughout the semester and posted at brynmawr.edu/studyabroad

All students are welcome to join an informal series of chats with subject matter experts to explore different topics and ask questions. Dates to be announced. Topics this semester will include:

- Financial Aid for Your Study Abroad Semester
- Maximizing Your Mental Health While Abroad
- Tips for First Time Travelers
