*Please note that a time commitment of 8-12 hours is required for CBWS. Additionally, employers prefer to have a student work for 4-8 hour shifts and travel may be required.

Are you willing and able to work remotely? If so, what supports would be necessary for you to be successful in remote work? (E.g. internet or cell access, scheduling support, accountability)

Do you have any concerns about working in person?

Do you have any questions?

After the Career and Civic Engagement Center receives and reviews your application, Jules will be in touch with you about next steps. Included in this process is communication between myself (Jules) and the organization you are interested in about creating a contract. Please note that the Center must receive a signed contract stating dates of employment and rate of pay BEFORE you may begin working and logging hours.

☐ I understand this information.
