WHAT DOES TIAA TRUST, N.A. DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?
Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?
The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:
- Social Security number and income
- Account balances and payment history
- Transaction history and employment information

How?
All financial companies need to share customers’ personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers’ personal information; the reasons TIAA Trust, N.A. chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

What we do

How does TIAA Trust, N.A. protect my personal information?
To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does TIAA Trust, N.A. collect my personal information?
We collect your personal information, for example, when you:
- Open an account or deposit money
- Seek advice about your investments or make withdrawals from your account
- Tell us about your investment or retirement portfolio

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?
Federal law gives you the right to limit only:
- Sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?
Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.

Joint marketing
A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.
- TIAA Trust, N.A. does not jointly market financial products or services to you.

Other important information

California residents
In accordance with California law, we will not share information we collect about you with nonaffiliates, except as permitted by law, including, for example, with your consent or to service your account.

For Vermont customers
We will not disclose to our affiliates information about your creditworthiness or disclose your personal information, financial information, credit report, or health information to nonaffiliated third parties to market to you, other than as permitted by Vermont law, unless you authorize us to make those disclosures.

Additional information concerning our privacy can be found at TIAA.org/public/support/privacy.
