

Resume Checklist

Ask yourself “What is this resume being used for?” (General, specific internship, fellowship, graduate school, etc.) Tailor your resume for the specific purpose you are writing it.

Layout & Appearance

- Avoid using templates – they are difficult to edit
- Font size and margins (10-12 point font and 0.5-1.0 inch margins)
- Resume is 1 page long preferably – target your resume
- Name stands out at the top of the page and header includes address, phone number and email
- Formatting is consistent (e.g. bold, font, bullet sizes, heading styles)
- Headings and statements are evenly spaced
- Verb tenses are in the present tense for current jobs
- Verb tenses are in the past tense for previous jobs
- There are approximately 2-6 statements per job

Content

- Header sections (Education, Experience, Activities, and Skills, etc.) make sense and the order is purposeful
- Experiences within sections are listed in reverse chronological order
- Education section states official degree and expected graduation date. If including a cumulative GPA it should be a 3.0 or above.
- Statements demonstrate major accomplishments rather than routine tasks/duties
- Accomplishment statements start with action verbs
- Accomplishment statements demonstrate the use of key skills – think about transferrable skills and technical skills utilizing Digital Competencies language where appropriate - www.brynmawr.edu/digitalcompetencies
- Statements demonstrate the results of my accomplishments. Quantify results (e.g. use numbers when possible)
- Skills section features language, computer and technical skills
- Activities/Leadership/Volunteer section highlights extracurricular activities, leadership experiences and community involvement
- Resume is completely free from spelling, punctuation and grammatical errors

Examples
